Are sentences 1–7 'Right' (A) or 'Wrong' (B)?

If there is not enough information to answer 'Right' (A) or 'Wrong' (B), choose 'Doesn't say' (C).

The Price of Football

My name is Ashley Parkes. Nine months ago, I started playing football for my school. The team coach told us to go and see as many football matches as possible to help us play better. I decided to go and see one of the big, famous football clubs play a match. My mum and dad wanted to come with me, and they agreed to pay for the tickets. When Mum asked me how much football tickets were, I couldn't answer, so I went online to find out. What a nasty surprise! The cheapest tickets for the next match were £41($65, €44) – £123 for the three of us. There weren't any discounts for children or students. And a ticket for the whole football year cost £999 per person!

I told Mum the match ticket price, and she said it was too much. Then Dad said, 'Why don't we go and watch our town club on Saturday? It's a small club, but they're playing well at the moment and I don't think it'll cost £41 each to see them!' On their website, I found some tickets for the match. They cost £15 for adults with a seat, or £13 standing up, but under-16s only pay £6 with or without a seat. What a difference! We went to the match and enjoyed it so much that we joined the club and now we go to every game.

0 Ashley has played football in the school team for several years.
A Right (B) Wrong C Doesn't say

1 The football coach took the team to watch some matches.
A Right B Wrong C Doesn't say

2 Ashley knew how expensive the big football club's tickets were before he went online.

Reading Part 4

Read about Katie Melua (a pop singer) and her holidays.
Then answer the questions.

Katie Melua: My holidays

My best holiday ever was staying in the Maldive Islands, at the Anantara Dhigu Hotel. We had a brilliant time doing water sports and eating in restaurants near the hotel after resting for a few days when we first got there. And the most exciting thing happened: my boyfriend asked me to marry him! We were walking along the beach one evening and he suddenly asked me! After the walk, we had a special dinner of fantastic fish and fruit dishes on the beach, but we were so excited that we couldn't eat much of it. We went and sat by the sea and watched some baby sharks in the water.

Last September we went to Cornwall, England after our wedding. I've been to Cornwall's beaches in the rain before, but we were lucky with the weather this time. While we were staying there, I decided to start surfing, so booked a lesson and loved it.

One of the worst things about travelling is losing your luggage. Once, my suitcase was lost on a flight to Germany. I was singing in a concert in Baden-Baden, which is famous for its natural hot baths. Unfortunately, it doesn't have many clothes shops! I had to borrow a friend's old jeans to wear while I was doing the show!

Holidays are good for a rest from work, and for learning new things. But ten days on holiday is usually long enough for me, then I want to get back to work.

0 What does Katie say about the Anantara Dhigu Hotel?
- A Her favourite holiday was there.
- B She always has good holidays there.
- C It's the nicest place in the Maldives.

1 During the first days of her holiday at the Anantara Dhigu Hotel, Katie
- A did outdoor activities.
- B rested a lot.
- C tried some restaurants.

2 Katie's boyfriend asked her to marry him
- A before their evening walk.
- B during their evening walk.
- C after their evening walk.

3 Katie didn't finish the meal she had on the beach because she
- A was given too many dishes.
- B felt too excited.
- C wanted to see some sharks.

4 What did Katie do for the first time last September?
- A She went surfing.
- B She visited Cornwall.
- C She had a rainy holiday.

5 Why did Katie go to Baden-Baden?
- A to try the natural baths
- B to go clothes shopping
- C to do her job

6 At the concert, Katie wore
- A a pair of her old jeans.
- B someone else's jeans.
- C jeans she bought in Germany.

7 Katie thinks that holidays should
- A be shorter than two weeks each time.
- B happen several times a year.
- C be in a new place every time.

Let's go to the wood day together. We should take the earlier bus – it goes from nearer our houses. I looked online – it comes back at 5 p.m., and only stops at the station. Jane Williams won't be there. Pity, she taught us great lessons at school last week. The ground may be wet, so we'll need boots. But no mobile phones!

Reading Part 4

Read the article about young people who've made computer games for a competition. Then answer the questions.

Charlotte

I learned to make games at school in IT and art lessons when I was ten. We made video cartoons. I worked on the game for this competition at school, too. Last year, my brother and I made a different game for a school competition and we won a trip to a computer games company with one of the teachers. When I leave school I'd love to work there, but I don't think I'll earn a lot.

Abigail

I made the game for fun for my brother. I planned to make a different one for the games competition. However, when I showed it to my IT teacher at school, he thought it was brilliant and said I should enter it! Everyone just loves playing it. I'm really excited about the competition, but I don't think I'm going to win. In the future, I want to start my own technology company.

Françoise

When I was eleven I played video games all the time. So I began to try new video games for a computer games company. We had to play them and find any problems and I earned money for doing it. I also started to get ideas and I began to make the game I'm entering for the competition. I've always worked hard and I usually pass all my art, IT, business and maths exams at school easily. I hope to do a course in computer art at college next year.

Listening Part 3 Track 3

Listen to Kelly talking to her mum about her violin lessons. For each question, choose the right answer (A, B or C).

Woman: Kelly, I've just spoken to your violin teacher. You haven't got a lesson this week.
Girl: Is she ill, Mum?
Woman: No, she's on a course because she's doing an exam next month.
Girl: So when's my next lesson?
Woman: It'll be the 15th – you're missing this week, the 8th August, and on the 22nd, your teacher's away again.
Girl: Right.
Woman: She said you need a new music book, too.
Girl: Oh, OK. Where can we get that?
Woman: Well, they haven't got any music at the library, I've looked before. The bookshop's cheaper than the music shop, so we'll get it there.
Girl: OK. Which day?
Woman: How about Thursday? Not tomorrow, I work late on Tuesdays and you've got dance club on Wednesday.
Girl: Fine. Will you pick me up after school?
Woman: No, I'll only finish work at quarter to four, so go home first. I'll pick you up there at four o'clock. Then we'll get to the shop about quarter past four.
Girl: Right. Can we have our dinner in a café afterwards?
Woman: OK. You know the burger restaurant's closed, but we can go and have a pizza. The fish café's too far from the shops.
Girl: Great!

Unit 2

Grammar, Exercise 4 Track 4

Julian: Did you go to Music Club yesterday?
Peter: No, they played jazz and I don't like jazz much.
Julian: What kind of music do you like?
Peter: Rock, pop, classical – most kinds, but not jazz!
Julian: I'd like to come too. Can I just come or do I have to ask the teacher first?
Peter: Just come when you want to. Would you like to come with me next week?
Julian: Yes, please. I'd like to join so I can learn to play an instrument.
Peter: Do you like all kinds of music?
Julian: I like modern music best, but I'd like to learn more about classical and jazz, too.
Peter: Music Club will be perfect for you!

Listening Part 4, Exam task Track 7

You will hear a girl, Becky, telling her friend, Milo, about a cookery club. Listen and complete each question.

Becky: Milo, did you know Cookery Club's starting again?

Milo: Really? Is it on Wednesday, like last year?

Becky: No, Friday – Mr Bath told me to tell everyone.

Milo: OK. Are many people doing it this year?

Becky: The new cookery room's got 12 cookers, so Mr Bath says 20 people can join.

Milo: Did he say what we're going to cook this week?

Becky: He's teaching us to make bread. And he'll bring some soup for us to have with it.

Milo: Great!

Becky: Mr Bath won't be here next week, so Miss Donagh will show us how to make something.

Milo: Who? How do you spell her name?

Becky: She's my science teacher. It's D-O-N-A-G-H.

Milo: OK. So is it the same time as last year?

Becky: Yes. School finishes at 3.30, and we all need time to get to the cookery room, so we'll meet at three forty-five, like last year.

Milo: Right. And how much is it?

Becky: It'll be different every week, but not more than £4.50.

Milo: OK. See you there!

Listening Part 5 Track 10

You will hear a woman on the TV talking about a new programme for teenagers. Listen and complete each question.

Sadly, that was the last Cook it Fast show, but don't worry, food lovers! There will soon be an exciting new show for teenagers called Hot Food. The show will include cooking and information about all kinds of subjects such as healthy food and national dishes. In the first programme, young cooks tell us all about vegetables. They'll show us how to cook and grow them. But this won't be like a normal cookery show: the programmes are not filmed at the TV centre. We're making the programmes in schools! And we'd like you to call us with your ideas – we'll choose the best ones and then come and film you! So phone us on 0996 548013 if you have any brilliant ideas for the programmes. Now get out your diary! This amazing new programme will be on Mondays. And on Tuesday evenings, you'll be able to chat to people from the show online. The first show's on 28th November, after you come home from school, from five fifteen until five forty-five – write it down now!

Unit 4

Vocabulary, Exercise 6 Track 11

1 Do you play volleyball in a team?
2 I'd like to go cycling when we're on holiday.
3 Janey and Maria do aerobics every Monday evening.
4 You must throw the ball over the net.
5 How often do you train for the competition with your coach?
6 I won't be happy if we lose the match.

Listening Part 1 Track 12

You will hear five short conversations. There is one question for each conversation. For each question, choose the right answer (A, B or C).

Narrator: 1 Where is Jessie playing table tennis?

Girl: Where's your sister, Robert?

Boy: Jessie's playing table tennis with her friend, Kate. They went after school.

Girl: To Kate's house, you mean?

Boy: That's right, and they're going to the sports centre to play volleyball after that.

Narrator: 2 What does the girl's football team wear?

Boy: Does your team wear black shirts, like ours?

Girl: With white numbers, yes. Our team wears nearly the same as yours, but our socks are white, not black.

Boy: Oh. So you wear white shorts, too?

Girl: We do, with a black number at the sides.

Narrator: 3 What time is Henry's skiing lesson?

Man: Is your skiing lesson before or after mine, Henry?

Boy: What time's yours, Dad?

Man: 8.45.

Boy: Oh, well mine starts half an hour later, at quarter past nine. You'll have to get up before me!

Narrator: 4 What is Mum's aerobics teacher doing this evening?

Boy: Why aren't you at your aerobics class this evening, Mum?

Woman: Our teacher can't do the class this week.

Boy: Is she ill again?

Woman: No, she's fine now. She's flying to Paris tonight because she's got a wedding there tomorrow.

Narrator: 5 Where did Liz sell her football ticket?

Boy: Liz, hi. Did you sell that football match ticket that you don't want? I just heard someone on the radio asking for tickets.

Girl: Oh, I've sold mine. I put a poster up at my football club and someone there wanted it.

Boy: That's good.

Girl: Yes, Dad advertised it online first, but no one called us about that.

Unit 5

Grammar, Exercise 3 Track 13

Last summer, Simon went with his family to camp in a tent near a castle in the mountains. It was a beautiful place but as soon as they arrived, it started to rain and it didn't stop for four days! During the day, they didn't do any activities because it was too wet outside and at night, they didn't sleep because the wind and the rain were so noisy. On the fifth day, the man who lived in the castle invited them to stay inside the castle! After that, Simon and his family had a great time. They didn't mind the bad weather because they played games in the castle all day and they didn't hear the rain and the wind at night.

Listening Part 5 Track 14

You will hear some information about a museum. Listen and complete each question.

The Museum of Pop Music is the city's most popular museum for visitors aged 12 to 18. And its new address in Victoria Square has brought thousands more visitors to see its amazing collections.

This month, the museum has a new exhibition. It's called 'Cinema' and it explores art and music from film, with hundreds of pictures, recordings and videos. It's open from the 31st October until the 25th November. Don't miss it! The museum has also just opened a new fashion room. Here, you can see a large number of clothes worn by famous pop stars over the last 50 or 60 years.

To make it easier for you to travel to the museum, why don't you come on the boat? Museum visitors can now buy special low-price tickets. It's much nicer than sitting on a bus! Ask about this at any transport office or online.

Museum tickets for adults cost eight pounds fifty, but for children it's just five pounds seventy-five. This includes young people up to the age of 19, but children under five go free.

Unit 6

Grammar, Exercise 4 Track 15

1 Journey C is longer than journey A.
2 Journey A is the shortest.
3 Journey B is further than journey C.
4 Journey A is the longest.
5 Journey B is cheaper than journey A.
6 Journey A is the most expensive.
7 Train B is older than train C.
8 Train C is the newest.

Vocabulary, Exercise 3 Track 16

Narrator: One

Boy: How do you usually travel when you go on holiday?

Girl: We usually travel by train.

Narrator: Two

Boy: Do most students walk to your school or do they go by bus or car?

Girl: Most go by car!

Narrator: Three

Boy: Which airport do people in your town fly from?

Girl: They usually fly from Barcelona airport.

Narrator: Four

Boy: Can ten-year-olds drive cars in your country?

Girl: No, of course they can't!

Narrator: Five

Boy: Does anyone in your family ride a motorbike?

Girl: Yes. My uncle rides one.

Narrator: Six

Boy: How long does it take for a ship to sail around the world?

Girl: I don't know. How long?

Boy: About three months, I think.

Listening Part 2 Track 17

Listen to Marcia talking to her friend, Josh, about taking the school bus. Where does each person catch the school bus? Write a letter A–H next to each person.

Marcia: I'm going to start taking the school bus next week, Josh. Where should I catch it?

Josh: I catch it from Hill Street. After the railway bridge, there's a roundabout and my bus stop's there.

Marcia: Right. Does Michael catch it there? He lives near you.

Josh: No. His mum drives him into town. She works at the motorbike shop, but leaves her car in the car park in George Street. Michael catches the bus there.

Marcia: Right.

Josh: David gets on at the bus stop in New Street, by the bridge – the one that crosses the river.

Marcia: Oh yes, I can catch it there too. Who else goes on the bus?

Josh: Ellen. She lives opposite the cinema, so she catches the bus at the tram stop near there.

Marcia: What about Katy, Ellen's neighbour?

Josh: She doesn't like crossing the busy road to the tram stop. So she uses the stop next to the traffic lights behind the station.

Marcia: Oh yes.

Josh: Tom gets the bus too, at the crossing, near the supermarket car park.

Marcia: I know. Thanks Josh ...

Unit 7

Grammar, Exercise 4 Track 18

Girl: Peter is always hungry in the afternoon at school.

Boy: He should eat more at lunchtime.

Girl: Peter often forgets what his homework is.

Boy: He should write it down in a diary or notebook.

Girl: On rainy days, Peter's sweater is always wet.

Boy: He should wear a jacket.

Girl: Peter wants to play tennis better.

Boy: He should take some lessons.

Girl: Peter is always tired in the morning.

Boy: He shouldn't go to bed late.

Girl: Peter's sister is angry with him.

Boy: He shouldn't borrow her things without asking.

Vocabulary, Exercise 3 Track 19

1 Hassan only has lessons at school in the morning.
2 Hassan studies fourteen different subjects at school.
3 A man called Mr Ali teaches Hassan maths.
4 Hassan spends about two hours a night doing his homework.
5 Hassan has only missed one day of school this school year.

Listening Part 5 Track 20

You will hear a music teacher talking about her lessons. Listen and complete each question.

I'm here to tell you about my after-school music lessons at Hill Road School. I'm Mrs Sweet. I know some of you can already play the violin because you learn it in music lessons at school, and I've seen you playing in the school orchestra. But if you'd like to try something else, you can learn to play the guitar with me. I have a class of ten students and we have lots of fun! School orchestra practises on Mondays, and I think it's good for you to have a rest on Tuesdays, so you can come and play more music at my lessons on Wednesdays, starting at four o'clock. We meet for the lessons in Room 58 – that's the big room opposite Art Room seven. If you come, you must buy the book I use so you can practise at home. It's called Play Well and you can buy it at Music Now. My lessons aren't expensive because you learn in a group of ten. Each student pays just £22.80 a month, so it's five pounds seventy a week. OK?

Unit 8

Grammar, Exercise 4 Track 21

1 He didn't stop laughing while he was watching the cartoon.
2 She dropped the bowl on her foot while she was putting fruit in it.
3 They saw the circus lorries in the street while they were walking to school.
4 He broke the light on his bike while he was trying to mend the wheel.
5 She was playing a computer game so she didn't hear the phone.
6 We built a fire for the first time while we were camping.

Listening Part 2 Track 22

Listen to Matthew talking to his friend, Alice, about courses his friends took while they were on holiday. Which course did each friend take? For questions 1–5, write a letter A–H next to each friend.

Matthew: How was your holiday, Alice?

Alice: Great. My course was really interesting.

Matthew: What did you learn?

Alice: How to write stories and news articles.

Matthew: Really? Maybe I should do a course on my holiday ...

Alice: Like Ahmet? He learned to cook Chinese dishes on holiday – he wants to work as a food writer when he leaves school.

Matthew: Zena went to the same holiday camp as Ahmet, didn't she?

Alice: Yes, but she chose a course which she didn't need to do lots of reading and writing for. She had a week of Spanish dancing lessons.

Matthew: What about Zena's sister, Leah?

Alice: She learned to work with silver and made a beautiful necklace and earrings. I saw them yesterday.

Matthew: That's amazing. Is Mick on holiday?

Alice: No, he just went away for two days because he had to come home on Monday to do a music exam. He did a windsurfing and sailing course at Lake Jarvis.

Matthew: Right. When does Ellie come home?

Alice: Next week. She's done a short course on biology this week. It was all about water plants and she loved it.

Matthew: Really?

Unit 9

Grammar, Exercise 2 Track 23

1 He's carrying his violin because he's going to play in a concert.
2 He's revising because he's going to do an exam tomorrow.
3 He's waiting in the street because a bus is going to come soon.
4 He's finding his seat in the theatre because the play is going to start soon.
5 He's practising dancing because he's going to a disco later.
6 He needs a knife because he's going to cut the bread.

Listening Part 4 Track 24

You will hear Neil talking to his friend about an art exhibition. Listen and complete each question.

Neil: Maria, do you like this painting?

Maria: It's brilliant, Neil! Did you do it?

Neil: Yes. I'm going to put it in the art club's Young Artists exhibition.

Maria: Great. Will the exhibition only be paintings? Or are there other things as well, like drawings or film?

Neil: There are going to be a few photos in the exhibition, too.

Maria: Really? I must see it. When is it?

Neil: In July, starting on the 24th and finishing on the 30th. Can you come?

Maria: Yes. Where is it?

Neil: At the college. The exhibition entrance is opposite the theatre.

Maria: OK. Are you going to sell the paintings?

Neil: Yes, but quite cheaply. We decided the most expensive price should be £30, but some of the small pictures will cost just £7.50. And we'll give all the money we get to our art club.

Maria: That's good.

Neil: And our teacher is going to give lessons at the exhibition.

Maria: What about?

Neil: She's a really good painter of people. But the subject she's going to teach at the exhibition is colour – so all sorts of artists will be interested.

Unit 10

Grammar, Exercise 3 Track 25

1 She'll go to the lake with Nick if he doesn't have football practice.
2 If she goes to the lake, she'll need her swimming costume.
3 If she takes a picnic, she won't need to buy food in the café.
4 If she cycles around the lake, she'll feel tired.
5 If she sees some interesting animals, she'll take photos of them.
6 She'll put her camera in her bag if it starts to rain.
7 She won't take her rain jacket if the weather is good.

Listening Part 1 Track 26

You will hear five short conversations. There is one question for each conversation. For each question, choose the right answer (A, B or C).

Narrator: 1 What was the weather like last winter?

Man: Look at the snow outside, Daisy!

Daisy: Wow! We can go skiing this weekend – brilliant! We didn't ski last winter at all, did we?

Man: No, it was too wet. But there may be a lot of ice on the roads this weekend, so we may not go skiing.

Daisy: Never mind.

Narrator: 2 Who will go for the birthday meal with Jade and her parents?

Woman: Who's coming to the restaurant with us on your birthday, Jade?

Girl: I asked three of my best friends, Mary, Kate and Emma, but Emma can't come.

Woman: OK, and of course your brother will be with us.

Girl: And you and dad.

Narrator: 3 What happened during the storm last week?

Boy: That storm was terrible last week, wasn't it?

Girl: Yes! A tree fell across the river and the water came up onto the road near our school.

Boy: Was the school OK?

Girl: Yes, but we had to walk there every morning until the water went away.

Narrator: 4 What work does Eleanor do on the farm at weekends?

Boy: Which farm do you work on at weekends, Eleanor?

Girl: The one next to the horse-riding school.

Boy: Cool! They have thousands of chickens – do you have to collect their eggs?

Girl: I do, and my friend Sue sells them in the farm shop.

Narrator: 5 Where is Richard's MP3 player?

Man: Why are you using my MP3 player, Richard?

Richard: Because mine's in Mum's car and she's gone to see Grandma.

Man: Are you sure? I saw it in the kitchen this morning.

Richard: I know, but I went to the library after that. Mum drove me home, and she's just texted me to say she found it on one of the seats.

Unit 11

Grammar, Exercise 3 Track 27

Dad: Hi Adam. What are you doing?

Adam: I've just got home from my music lesson. Have you had dinner yet?

Dad: No, not yet.

Adam: I'm hungry. Do you want me to help you cook?

Dad: No, I've already done it. I prepared the fish this morning and cooked it earlier this evening.

Adam: Great! Let's eat. I'll put the knives and forks on the table.

Dad: I've just done that, a minute ago. But I haven't put any water or glasses on the table yet. Can you do that, please?

Adam: OK.

Listening Part 3 Track 28

Listen to Christina talking to her friend Barney about her health problem. For each question, choose the right answer (A, B or C).

Barney: How are you, Christina?

Christina: Not great.

Barney: What's the matter?

Christina: I've hurt my back, at the top, near my neck. It hurts when I put my arms up.

Barney: Have you seen the doctor?

Christina: Not yet. But I will.

Barney: This morning?

Christina: She's busy – I'm going tomorrow afternoon. So I won't be at school until Thursday.

Barney: How did it happen?.

Christina: I fell over after basketball practice yesterday. I walked home from school, then it happened when I was going upstairs to our flat.

Barney: Really? So where are you now?

Christina: At home, lying down. Not on my bed; in the living room, on the sofa. Mum's here, making lunch in the kitchen.

Barney: So what can't you do at the moment?

Christina: Mum said no skateboarding, which I'm not happy about. But I can go swimming – it may help. I'm not going to my guitar lesson this evening, but that's fine!

Barney: Would you like something to read? I've got some new books from the library about famous people.

Christina: OK – but not film actors again.

Barney: A pop singer's life?

Christina: I'd prefer to read about a footballer or something like that.

Barney: How about an amazing swimmer?

Christina: Brilliant. Thanks, Barney.

Unit 12

Grammar, Exercise 3 Track 29

1 The first email was sent in 1971.

2 The first digital cameras were sold by a company called Logitech.

3 The first fridge was built by Jacob Perkins in 1834.

4 The first computer mouse was made of wood.

5 The first hairdryer was used by a French hairdresser.

6 The first text messages were written on the third of December 1992.

Listening Part 2 Track 30

Listen to Alice talking to her mum about finding things on the Internet. What thing does each person want to find? For questions 1–5, write a letter A–H next to each person.

Woman: Hi, Alice.

Girl: Hi, Mum.

Woman: Where's everyone else? Is Aunt Sarah here?

Girl: She's on the computer with Dad. She's looking for a hairdryer that she saw on a TV advertisement.

Woman: What about your dad?

Girl: He wants a DVD. There's a special offer on that one about a photographer – he saw it at the cinema last year.

Woman: Oh, OK. And your brother?

Girl: Thomas is in his bedroom on his phone. He's trying to find a website where he can buy a cheap electric guitar. He wants to teach himself to play guitar.

Woman: Really? And your sister?

Girl: Annabel's on her laptop. She's unhappy because our printer isn't good for photos, so she's looking for a new one.

Woman: Which cousin came with Aunt Sarah?

Girl: John. He's waiting to use the computer so he can look on the Internet. He wants this new digital camera that takes amazing pictures and videos.

Woman: Right. Is Grandma in her room?

Girl: Yes. She's online on her TV. She's asked for a new laptop for her birthday and she's looking at them now.

Woman: Right!

CAMBRIDGE ENGLISH CORPUS

The Cambridge English Corpus is a multi-billion word collection of written and spoken English. It includes the Cambridge Learner Corpus, a unique bank of exam candidate papers.

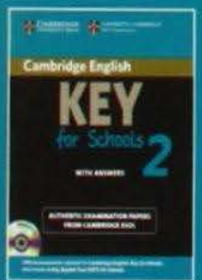

Our authors study the Corpus to see how English is really used, and to identify typical learner mistakes. This means that Cambridge materials help students to avoid mistakes, and you can be confident the language taught is useful, natural and fully up to date.
