CHAPTER ONE

The Birth Of The Deliverer

Apart from Jesus Christ who is God Himself, Moses is the greatest deliverance minister that had ever lived. His birth and preservation are deliverance on its own (Exodus 2:1-10; 1:8).

He was born at a time when a new king arose in Egypt. The new king who knew not Joseph passed an edict against every male child born by the children of Israel.

There was no other human means left to save or deliver any male born child in Israel except that people must have to avoid pregnancy. At that time, the task masters were raised to afflict the children of Israel in Egypt. The Egyptians made the children of Israel to serve with rigor, bitterness, and hard bondage. The king mandated the Hebrews midwives to kill the entire male children upon the stools.

“And the king of Egypt spake to the Hebrew midwives, of which the name of the one was Shiprah, and the name of the other Puah: And he said, When ye do the office of a midwife to the Hebrew women, and see them upon the stools; if it be a son, then ye shall kill him: but if it be a daughter, then she shall live...And Pharaoh charged all his people, saying, Every son that is born ye shall cast into the river, and every daughter ye shall save alive” (Exodus 1:15, 16, 22).

The children of Israel were evil entreated and their young children were cast alive to die in the river, as a sacrifice to the water goddess of River Nile. It was at this time that Moses was born.

God miraculously delivered Moses and preserved his life. He was taken care of by Pharaoh's daughter, who took him as her own son. Moses was well trained, and educated in all the learning's of the Egyptians. He had a balanced experience and was adequately knowledgeable.

Moses was born at a difficult time but preserved for divine purpose. Moses was a proper child, preserved for the deliverance of God's people.

“By faith Moses, when he was born, was hid three months of his parents, because they saw he was a proper child; and they were not afraid of the king's commandment” (Hebrews 1:23).

God knew Moses before birth; He created and formed him right from his mother's womb. He was God's property; known by God. So as a result, Moses was never afraid. Deliverance ministers who are really called by God should not entertain any fear, unless their ministry is not from God. They may need to pass through the rivers of problems but the waters shall not overflow them. They shall surely pass through the fire but God will not allow the fire to burn them, or the flame to kindle upon them because the Lord is their Saviour.

“But now thus saith the LORD that created thee, O Jacob, and he that formed thee, O Israel, Fear not: for I have redeemed thee, I have called thee by thy name; thou art mine. When thou passest through the waters, I will be with thee; and through the rivers, they shall not overflow thee: when thou walkest through the fire, *thou shalt not be burned; neither shall the flame kindle upon thee.

For I am the LORD thy God, the Holy One of Israel, thy Saviour:
I gave Egypt for thy ransom, Ethiopia and Seba for thee” (Isaiah

The deliverance ministers are meant to be preserved from the womb to the grave if they abide in the Word of God. They are born to deliver others; set the captives free, and to say to the prisoners: “Go forth” (Isaiah 49:9-11).

True deliverance ministers walk by faith and not by sight, if they must be delivered from their own personal bondage (2 Corinthians 5:7; Proverbs 19:21; 21:30).

Deliverance ministers who must be set free from their personal bondage must be spiritual, truthful, and yielding to divine counsels to the details. They must listen to God’s wisdom, and possess divine understanding; manifesting the fruits of the spirit.

Moses was born in the time of oppression but God preserved his life. He was born in the time of danger but the Lord preserved his life. The meeting of Pharaoh’s daughter and Moses was not by accident or by chance. It was a divine arrangement, planned by God. Pharaoh paid Moses’ parents to train the very man that was to destroy his kingdom later. God can use anybody to preserve the life of a deliverance minister.

Moses was a child of a slave but God promoted him and made him the son of a queen. He was born in a hut but God took him away from there and he lived in a palace. He inherited great poverty but he enjoyed unlimited wealth. He was a keeper of flocks but the Lord promoted him, and made him the leader of armies. Many deliverance ministers have forgotten where the Lord met them. Many are so proud today and they see themselves as God; believing that everybody must pass through before they can be delivered. They talk to people anyhow just because on daily basis, God has favoured them, and sent people to cloud them. They forget that it is by the grace of God that they are doing all that they are doing.

Moses was the mightiest of warriors but he was the meekest of men (Numbers 12:3). Many deliverance ministers today choose whom to meet, and reject people that God has sent to them for one reason or the other. Pride, anger, lying, immorality, and the love of money has wasted many deliverance ministers. Moses was a meek man; educated in the court but he lived in the desert.

“By faith Moses, when he was come to years, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter; Choosing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God, than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season; Esteeming the reproach of Christ greater riches than the treasures in Egypt: for he had respect unto the recompense of the reward. By faith he forsook Egypt, not fearing the wrath of the king: for he endured, as seeing him who is invisible” (Hebrews 11:24-27).

Moses knew all the wisdom of Egypt above all of Pharaoh's magicians but he manifested the faith of Abraham's seed. He was brought up in the most developed city of the world of his days, but he chose to wonder in the wilderness. He was raised in great luxury and the comfort of the queen, but he endured painful hardship without complaints. He was a taciturn; very back-word in speech, but he spoke fluently with God. He took his stand before Pharaoh, and refused to compromise.

“And Pharaoh called for Moses and for Aaron, and said, Go ye, sacrifice to your God in the land. And Moses said, It is not meet so to do; for we shall sacrifice the abomination of the Egyptians to the LORD our God: lo, shall we sacrifice the abomination of the Egyptians before their eyes, and will they not stone us? We will go three days' journey into the wilderness, and sacrifice to the LORD our God, as he shall command us. And Pharaoh said, I will let you go, that ye may sacrifice to the LORD your God in the wilderness; only ye shall not go very far away: intreat for me. And Moses said, Behold, I go out from thee, and I will intreat the LORD that the swarms of flies may depart from Pharaoh, from his servants, and from his people, to morrow: but let not Pharaoh deal deceitfully any more in not letting the people go to sacrifice to the LORD. And Moses went out from Pharaoh, and intreated the LORD. And the LORD did according to the word of Moses; and he removed the swarms of flies from Pharaoh, from his servants, and from his people; there remained not one. And Pharaoh hardened his heart at this time also, neither would he let the people go” (Exodus 8:25-32).

He took the bones of Joseph out of Egypt as Joseph instructed; thereby preventing the Egyptian magicians from probably using it for evil purposes.

“And Joseph dwelt in Egypt, he, and his father's house: and Joseph lived an hundred and ten years. And Joseph saw Ephraim's children of the third generation: the children also of Machir the son of Manasseh were brought up upon Joseph's knees. And Joseph said unto his brethren, I die: and God will surely visit you, and bring you out of this land unto the land which he sware to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob. And Joseph took an oath of the children of Israel, saying, God will surely visit you, and ye shall carry up my bones from hence. So Joseph died, being an hundred and ten years old: and they embalmed him, and he was put in a coffin in Egypt” (Genesis 50:22-26).

He was in possession of the rod of a shepherd but he manifested the power of an infinite God. He was back-word in speech but he sang one of the most beautiful songs of deliverance.

“Then sang Moses and the children of Israel this song unto the LORD, and spake, saying, I will sing unto the LORD, for he hath triumphed gloriously: the horse and his rider hath he thrown into the sea. The LORD is my strength and song, and he is become my salvation: he is my God, and I will prepare him an habitation; my father's God, and I will exalt him. The LORD is a man of war: the LORD is his name. Pharaoh's chariots and his host hath he cast into the sea: his chosen captains also are drowned in the Red sea. The depths have covered them: they sank into the bottom as a stone. Thy right hand, O LORD, is become glorious in power: thy right hand, O LORD, hath dashed in pieces the enemy. And in the greatness of thine excellency thou hast overthrown them that rose up against thee: thou sentest forth thy wrath, which consumed them as stubble. And with the blast of thy nostrils the waters were gathered together, the floods stood upright as an heap, and the depths were congealed in the heart of the sea. The enemy said, I will pursue, I will overtake, I will divide the spoil; my lust shall be satisfied upon them; I will draw my sword, my hand shall destroy them. Thou didst blow with thy wind, the sea covered them: they sank as lead in the mighty waters. Who is like unto thee, O LORD, among the gods? who is like thee, glorious in holiness, fearful in praises, doing wonders? Thou stretchedst out thy right hand, the earth swallowed them. Thou in thy mercy hast led forth the people which thou hast redeemed: thou hast guided them in thy strength unto thy holy habitation. The people shall hear, and be afraid: sorrow shall take hold on the inhabitants of Palestina. Then the dukes of Edom shall be amazed; the mighty men of Moab, trembling shall take hold upon them; all the inhabitants of Canaan shall melt away. Fear and dread shall fall upon them; by the greatness of thine arm they shall be as still as a stone; till thy people pass over, O LORD, till the people pass over, which thou hast purchased. Thou shalt bring them in, and plant them in the mountain of thine inheritance, in the place, O LORD, which thou hast made for thee to dwell in, in the Sanctuary, O Lord, which thy hands have established. The LORD shall reign for ever and ever. For the horse of Pharaoh went in with his chariots and with his horsemen into the sea, and the LORD brought again the waters of the sea upon them; but the children of Israel went on dry land in the midst of the sea” (Exodus 15:1-19).

Moses was a fugitive before Pharaoh but God chose him as one of His greatest ambassadors from heaven. He cried to God, and God supplied enough water to a whole nation, and they were delivered from thirst.

“And when they came to Marah, they could not drink of the waters of Marah, for they were bitter: therefore the name of it was called Marah. And the people murmured against Moses, saying, What shall we drink? And he cried unto the LORD; and the LORD shewed him a tree, which when he had cast into the waters, the waters were made sweet: there he made for them a statute and an ordinance, and there he proved them, And said, If thou wilt diligently hearken to the voice of the LORD thy God, and wilt do that which is right in his sight, and wilt give ear to his commandments, and keep all his statutes, I will put none of these diseases upon thee, which I have brought upon the Egyptians: for I am the LORD that healeth thee” (Exodus 15: 23-26).

He was the giver of the law and the forerunner of grace. He fought and defeated Amalekites. He was the destroyer of idols. He prayed for a successor, died alone in the Mount of Moab, and appeared with Christ on Mount of Transfiguration in Judah.

“And after six days Jesus taketh Peter, James, and John his brother, and bringeth them up into an high mountain apart, And was transfigured before them: and his face did shine as the sun, and his raiment was white as the light. And, behold, there appeared unto them Moses and Elias talking with him” (Matthew 17:1-3).

All his followers ran away from him at his death, and none assisted at his funeral; yet God buried him. Moses’ ministry and his sufferings were not forced on him. His service to God was done with all his heart. He was consumed and occupied with the future. But his impatience led him to a premature action. He experienced a shattered hope, isolation, and delayed ministry.

Moses' Premature Action Before God's Appointed Time

The parents of Moses must have informed him of the circumstances which surrounded his birth. He must have been fully informed about the children of Israel. He must have asked some questions having seen how the Egyptians treated the children of Israel. He must have waited for an opportunity for him to be in a position to defend the children of Israel.

“And it came to pass in those days, when Moses was grown, that he went out unto his brethren, and looked on their burdens: and he spied an Egyptian smiting an Hebrew, one of his brethren. And he looked this way and that way, and when he saw that there was no man, he slew the Egyptian, and hid him in the sand. And when he went out the second day, behold, two men of the Hebrews strove together: and he said to him that did the wrong, Wherefore smitest thou thy fellow? And he said, Who made thee a prince and a judge over us? intendest thou to kill me, as thou killedst the Egyptian? And Moses feared, and said, Surely this thing is known. Now when Pharaoh heard this thing, he sought to slay Moses. But Moses fled from the face of Pharaoh, and dwelt in the land of Midian: and he sat down by a well” (Exodus 2:11-15).

He knew he was called of God but he could not wait for such a time because of impatience. After forty years with Pharaoh, he thought it was time for action.

“And when he was full forty years old, it came into his heart to visit his brethren the children of Israel. And seeing one of them suffer wrong, he defended him, and avenged him that was oppressed, and smote the Egyptian: For he supposed his brethren would have understood how that God by his hand would deliver them: but they understood not. And the next day he shewed himself unto them as they strove, and would have set them at one again, saying, Sirs, ye are brethren; why do ye wrong one to another? But he that did his neighbour wrong thrust him away, saying, Who made thee a ruler and a judge over us? Wilt thou kill me, as thou diddest the Egyptian yesterday? Then fled Moses at this saying, and was a stranger in the land of Madian, where he begat two sons. And when forty years were expired, there appeared to him in the wilderness of mount Sina an angel of the Lord in a flame of fire in a bush” (Acts 7:23-30).

Many ministers with experience of few years are rushing into personal ministry. They are touched by what people are going through and they feel it is time to arise and help others without hearing from God first. They are in need of deliverance, but they want to start immediately to help others out of their problems; neglecting their own foundational bondage. Moses was touched by the injustices of the Egyptians against the children of Israel. (Hebrews 11:24-26; Proverbs 19:2).

“Also, that the soul be without knowledge, it is not good; and he that hasteth with his feet sinneth” (Proverbs 19:2).

Moses took the right decisions at the wrong time. He did not wait for God’s time. He had the knowledge but he used it at the wrong time. He was in haste to do the right thing, and it became a mistake. He suffered for acting at the wrong time (Proverbs 20:21; Hebrews 11:25).

“An inheritance may be gotten hastily at the beginning; but the end thereof shall not be blessed” (Proverbs 20:21).

As believers, you must not be in haste, no matter what you are passing through in life. Moses had no authority from Egypt to correct the wrongs, and no commission from God to fight for the rights of the children of Israel. He acted prematurely, under the influence of impatience, and he got into trouble eventually.

Moses started without God's leading. It was an assignment from God but his timing was wrong; and as a result, he became a self-appointed leader. He worked outside God's time and instructions. He was a self-commissioned minister without authority from the highest authority.

“Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I lay in Zion for a foundation a stone, a tried stone, a precious corner stone, a sure foundation: he that believeth shall not make haste” (Isaiah 28:16).

He was greatly trained and qualified for the job, but he was in haste. He had all that it took to start a ministry, but the fruit of the spirit (patience), longsuffering, was not in him. He should have taken time to pray, and fast if need be, to destroy the spirit of anger in him. But he was so impatient to start the ministry to help others without helping himself first.

“ In your patience possess ye your souls ” (Luke 21:19).

He possessed all the qualities, but the demons in his foundation were not dealt with. The powers of darkness in his place of birth were reigning in him. He knew the history of his birth, and all information about Egypt, but he neglected to research about his foundation.

“ Simeon and Levi are brethren; instruments of cruelty are in their habitations. O my soul, come not thou into their secret; unto their assembly, mine honour, be not thou united: for in their anger they slew a man, and in their self-will they digged down a wall. Cursed be their anger, for it was fierce; and their wrath, for it was cruel: I will divide them in Jacob, and scatter them in Israel ” (Genesis 49:5-7).

He came from the tribe of Levi, but he neglected his foundation. His fore-father, Levi, slew a man in his anger and laid an evil foundation for his offspring. Moses had the anointing to deliver himself and his tribe from evil foundation, but he never saw the need. He was in a hurry to start a deliverance ministry but he forgot the greatest and immediate need to deliver himself first, before others. He was under a curse of anger but he never took it seriously. His ancestors, once they became angry, can offend anybody, including God. But Moses was manipulated to believe that old things have passed away without fighting them. God waited for Moses to fight the evil in his foundation and deliver himself from anger before his ministry. But Moses was only interested in power, ministry, and the deliverance of the children of Israel from the Egyptian bondage. He wanted to serve others but he was not served; he was in bondage.

“And it came to pass on the third day, when they were sore, that two of the sons of Jacob, Simeon and Levi, Dinah's brethren, took each man his sword, and came upon the city boldly, and slew all the males. And they slew Hamor and Shechem his son with the edge of the sword, and took Dinah out of Shechem's house, and went out. The sons of Jacob came upon the slain, and spoiled the city, because they had defiled their sister... And Jacob said to Simeon and Levi, Ye have troubled me to make me to stink among the inhabitants of the land, among the Canaanites and the Perizzites: and I being few in number, they shall gather themselves together against me, and slay me; and I shall be destroyed, I and my house” (Genesis 34:25-27, 30).

The spirit of anger in the foundation of Moses gave them boldness in destruction and disobedience. In anger, they could spoil a whole city. In their anger, they can trouble anybody, even the elders. In their anger, they can disobey God's commandments. Moses' impatience led him to frustration, sin, suffering, and disappointment. He ran away and stayed in the wilderness for forty years with hard labour. He faced a lot of disappointments in the wilderness.

There are many deliverance ministers like that today. They deliver others but they are yet to be delivered. As I travel from city to city, nation to nation, I see a lot of general overseers with great crowd following them like the children of Israel were following Moses in the wilderness. They solve other people's problems but their own problems are not solved. Others submit to them for deliverance but they are too big to submit for their own deliverance. They preach very well, convince others to repent, follow God and pray themselves out of their foundational bondage, but they remain in their own bondage.

The Deliverer Who Needs Deliverance

Moses was a leader; a great deliverance minister, who delivered a whole nation from the strongest strongman of his time.

“And the LORD said unto him, This is the land which I sware unto Abraham, unto Isaac, and unto Jacob, saying, I will give it unto thy seed: I have caused thee to see it with thine eyes, but thou shalt not go over thither. So Moses the servant of the LORD died there in the land of Moab, according to the word of the LORD” (Deuteronomy 34:4-5).

He did not just give the children of Israel a law, he commanded it. He was a king among the heads of people, and all Israel’s tribe gathered with their ancestors before him. Yet he neglected his own problem, and faced other people’s problems (Exodus 2:1-2; Songs of solomon 1:6).

His father was a Levite and his mother was also a Levite, so Moses had a double evil foundation of anger. He thought others the law, showed them a way out of bondage, trained people and raised many great deliverance ministers, but he failed to deliver himself. He helped other people, and made them free from demonic attacks, but one aspect of his life was occupied by some evil powers.

“But he himself went a day's journey into the wilderness, and came and sat down under a juniper tree: and he requested for himself that he might die; and said, It is enough; now, O LORD, take away my life; for I am not better than my fathers” (1 Kings 19:4).

Moses gave his time for others when his ministry started but he never had time for himself. He did great works for God, helped people and delivered people in their millions; but he failed because of some powers in his foundation. The evil powers in his root could not stop him from working for God and others. Those foundational demons allowed him to operate; but they were waiting for him at the end of his ministry.

Evil Powers Of Your Father's House

Evil powers of your father's house are the powers that first defeated people in your lineage. They are the powers that entered into the foundations of your ancestors the very day they offended God. They are the demons that first entered into our ancestral foundations, the very first day they disobeyed our God. These are first demonic powers with their problems that came into people's life as a result of sin.

“Reuben, thou art my firstborn, my might, and the beginning of my strength, the excellency of dignity, and the excellency of power: Unstable as water, thou shalt not excel; because thou wentest up to thy father's bed; then defiledst thou it: he went up to my couch” (Genesis 49:3-4).

Evil powers of your father's house are the powers that lay evil foundation in the life of a person. They are the powers that cause people to make costly mistakes at the time of breakthrough. They are the powers that manipulate people to make wrong choices. It is the power that kills her victims when they need life most. It is the power that engages people in a useless battle. It is the power that convinces people to think that there is no problem when there is real problem. It is the power that keeps people under a curse or hardship for life. It is the power that keeps people under evil covenants and wastes their promising stars. It is the power that manipulates people, and keeps them in an evil relationship unto their doom. It is the power that gives her victims false hopes. It is the power that makes people's deliverances imperfect. It is the powers that yoke good people with bad people. It is the power that destroys marriages and cause people to struggle in vain in life. It is the power that exposes people to all manner of problems without solution. It is the power that causes people to work for God in anger and pride. It is the power that tries to crucify Jesus Christ the second time. It is the power that stops a great minister from entering the Promise Land.

“And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, Take the rod, and gather thou the assembly together, thou, and Aaron thy brother, and speak ye unto the rock before their eyes; and it shall give forth his water, and thou shalt bring forth to them water out of the rock: so thou shalt give the congregation and their beasts drink. And Moses took the rod from before the LORD, as he commanded him. And Moses and Aaron gathered the congregation together before the rock, and he said unto them, Hear now, ye rebels; must we fetch you water out of this rock? And Moses lifted up his hand, and with his rod he smote the rock twice: and the water came out abundantly, and the congregation drank, and their beasts also. And the LORD spake unto Moses and Aaron, Because ye believed me not, to sanctify me in the eyes of the children of Israel, therefore ye shall not bring this congregation into the land which I have given them. This is the water of Meribah; because the children of Israel strove with the LORD, and he was sanctified in them” (Numbers 20:7-13).

The evil powers of your father’s house are the powers that cause you to see the promise land but will not allow you to enter. It is the power that shows one good things but will not allow the person to enjoy it.

“And the LORD said unto Moses, Get thee up into this mount Abarim, and see the land which I have given unto the children of Israel. And when thou hast seen it, thou also shalt be gathered unto thy people, as Aaron thy brother was gathered. For ye rebelled against my commandment in the desert of Zin, in the strife of the congregation, to sanctify me at the water before their eyes: that is the water of Meribah in Kadesh in the wilderness of Zin. And Moses spake unto the LORD, saying, Let the LORD, the God of the spirits of all flesh, set a man over the congregation, Which may go out before them, and which may go in before them, and which may lead them out, and which may bring them in; that the congregation of the LORD be not as sheep which have no shepherd” (Numbers 27:12-17).

It is the power that can replace a man with another when he is about to make it in life. This is the power that can follow a man from birth to the graveyard. It is the power that allows people to labour without enjoying the fruits of their labours. It is the power that accuses a person at the edge of breakthroughs. It is the power that makes God to get angry against his ministers.

“Furthermore the LORD was angry with me for your sakes, and sware that I should not go over Jordan, and that I should not go in unto that good land, which the LORD thy God giveth thee for an inheritance: But I must die in this land, I must not go over Jordan: but ye shall go over, and possess that good land” (Deuteronomy 4:21-22).

Evil powers of your father's house are the powers that block a person from entering into good places. It is the power that denies people of their inheritance after years of service to their God. It is the power that confronts people with death instead of life at the end of service unto their God. It is the power that buries people without burial ceremony by his own people.

“And the LORD said unto him, This is the land which I sware unto Abraham, unto Isaac, and unto Jacob, saying, I will give it unto thy seed: I have caused thee to see it with thine eyes, but thou shalt not go over thither. So Moses the servant of the LORD died there in the land of Moab, according to the word of the LORD. And he buried him in a valley in the land of Moab, over against Bethpeor: but no man knoweth of his sepulchre unto this day” (Deuteronomy 34:4-6).

Moses answered God's call, and he gathered all Israel with his brother, Aaron. He spoke face to face with Pharaoh and overcame all his magicians. He crossed a whole nation across the red sea. He fasted for forty days and forty nights to receive divine times table. He prayed down God's presence and anointed seventy elders. He sent spies, anointed Captain Joshua, and built a fiery serpent for Israel's deliverance, but the evil powers in the dark room of his foundation blocked him from entering the Promised Land.

“And I besought the LORD at that time, saying, O Lord GOD, thou hast begun to shew thy servant thy greatness, and thy mighty hand: for what God is there in heaven or in earth, that can do according to thy works, and according to thy might? I pray thee, let me go over, and see the good land that is beyond Jordan, that goodly mountain, and Lebanon. But the LORD was wroth with me for your sakes, and would not hear me: and the LORD said unto me, Let it suffice thee; speak no more unto me of this matter. Get thee up into the top of Pisgah, and lift up thine eyes westward, and northward, and southward, and eastward, and behold it with thine eyes: for thou shalt not go over this Jordan” (Deuteronomy 3:23-27).

Moses eventually entered into the heavenly Promised Land but it will not be so with many. Are you a minister but you need deliverance? Do something urgently because Jesus has warned against it.

“Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven. Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity” (Matthew 7:21-23).

You can cast out demons and do great deliverances with demons inside you. You can prophecy in the name of Jesus, and your prophecies being accurate, and yet miss heaven. You can do many mighty works in the name of Jesus, and yet work iniquity. You may be sound in teaching the word of God with demons inside you.

“Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, and have not charity, I am become as sounding brass, or a tinkling cymbal. And though I have the gift of prophecy, and understand all mysteries, and all knowledge; and though I have all faith, so that I could remove mountains, and have not charity, I am nothing. And though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned, and have not charity, it profiteth me nothing” (1 Corinthians 13:1-3).

You may speak in tongues, sing like an angel, but go to hell fire with your sinful life. You may not be in talking terms with some people, yet you are delivering others. You may be manifesting the gifts of the Holy Ghost without being genuinely born again. You may be greatly gifted, yet you still commit immorality, indulge in dirty politics and wicked tribal demons.

Your rod of the deliverance like in the days of Moses, may be turning into serpents. But if you fail to repent, you will go to hell fire. You may be working false miracles by the means of the power you received from the water, but you will not escape the judgment of God. You may be performing miracles with gifts without the grace of God. You may be interpreting dreams like Joseph without being inspired by the Holy Ghost.

You may be delivering others with just one sin that usually overcomes you. You need an emergency New Testament deliverance before it is too late for you. You may have a lot of powers, without having the mercy of God and divine purity. You may be manifesting great faith without being led by the spirit of God and the fruits of the Holy Ghost. Balaam died a shameful death because he has the gift of God but he was not disciplined. Are you a deliverer who need deliverance?

CHAPTER TWO

When Your Foundation Is Sealed

The worst thing that can happen to someone is to live under a closed door, from birth to the grave. Unfortunately, many people including some believers are living under closed doors. Many are yet to discover why they are created, because their foundations are faulty and as a result, confusions characterize their lives. An undiscovered foundation affects a person and his offspring. The scripture says that the secret things belong unto the Lord our God. Not even our parents have the full information about our foundations, yet many of us do not even grow to know our parents. Many who grow up to know their parents are not spared because our parents cannot even boast of the knowledge of the present from the past. Many parents are also ignorant of what they personally did in the past that constitutes a problem at the present. Many shy away from telling their children their evil past, thereby leaving their children in a costly ignorance, and under faulty foundation. It is only God that knows the past to the present. As you try your best to find your past from your elders, you must also pray and tell God to reveal to you of your past and foundations.

“The secret things belong unto the LORD our God: but those things which are revealed belong unto us and to our children for ever, that we may do all the words of this law” (Deuteronomy. 29:29).

No one can claim to know all except God helps him. Everyone - groups, families and nations- has seven seals from God and from the devil. The devil has a planned sealed document against everyone concerning what he wishes to achieve in each life, likewise God.

“The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly” (John 10:10).

“And he returned unto him, and, lo, he stood by his burnt sacrifice, he, and all the princes of Moab...And when he came to him, behold, he stood by his burnt offering, and the princes of Moab with him. And Balak said unto him, What hath the LORD spoken?” (Numbers. 23:6, 17).

All the princes of Moab, their king, and Balaam, stood by their burnt offering with determination to know, open, read, and destroy God’s seals about the children of Israel. While the devil and his agents were busy unsealing God’s will for people’s lives and destroying them, believers are just watching. David suffered for three years with all the children of Israel because of evil foundation laid by their grandparents.

“And Joshua made peace with them, and made a league with them, to let them live: and the princes of the congregation sware unto them” (Joshua 9:15).

“Then there was a famine in the days of David three years, year after year; and David enquired of the LORD. And the LORD answered, It is for Saul, and for his bloody house, because he slew the Gibeonites” (2 Samuel 21:1).

When you break a covenant of your ancestors, even if you are sincere, you must suffer for it. A single mistake of your ancestors can affect the present generation. You must pray to God to reveal to you the secrets of your suffering even as a Christian. Otherwise, you may be a good Christian, yet and suffer a lot.

What Is A Seal?

A seal is an official wax or design, stamped on a document to show that it is genuine, and carries the authority of a particular person or organization. We have presidential seal. It is what makes something authentic. It is a piece of wax, soft metal, or paper that is placed across the opening of something, such as a letter or box, which has to be broken before the letter or box can be opened. When the seal are broken, then the paper can be unrolled, read, and interpreted. A seal prevents something that is contained in something from escaping.

How Do We Know Those Under Satanic Seal ?

When you cannot receive, open, read and interpret God's WILL for your life, the devil will practice his will for your life. Thus, it is possible for one to live under satanic will instead of God's will all the days of his life.

“Thine enemies roar in the midst of thy congregations; they set up their ensigns for signs...We see not our signs: there is no more any prophet: neither is there among us any that knoweth how long” (Psalm 74:4, 9).

“Our fathers have sinned, and are not; and we have borne their iniquities” (Lamentations 5:7).

When you are seeing curses instead of God's blessings, you are under the seal of the devil.

When good things die prematurely in your life, you are under satanic seal. When you struggle but you still experience no achievement in life, you are under satanic seal. When you suppose to prosper but you experience poverty and lack always, you are under satanic seal. When you are being hated and rejected while others you are better than are accepted instead of you, you are under satanic seal. When your miracles, breakthroughs are being delayed without natural explanations, you are under satanic seal. When you are having blockage at the edge of success, you are under the bondage of the seal of the devil. When you are going through unexplainable backwardness, you are under satanic seal. When you are very intelligent but you are experiencing memory failures, you are under satanic seal. When you are under the attacks of constant failure, you are under the bondage of satanic seals. When you are having repeated problems, you are under satanic seals, when you are suffering from terrible undiagnosed illness, you are under satanic seals. When you are having depressions, frustrations, you are under satanic seals. When you are experiencing all manner of backwardness instead of victory, you are under satanic seals.

“They have cast fire into thy sanctuary, they have defiled by casting down the dwelling place of thy name to the ground. They said in their hearts, Let us destroy them together: they have burned up all the synagogues of God in the land” (Psalm 74:7-8).

When God’s seal for your life is hidden from you, Satan will use his seals against your life. Your life is like story buildings with many apartments.

The Seven Seals Of God

The seven seals of God is actually a scroll, written within and on the backside; rolled up and sealed seven times. It is only an authorized person that can open a divine seal. This scroll, the seal of God, is the document that determines the beginning of a person to the end of his stay on earth. It is a document that outlined God's plan and purpose of a person with dates, time and years of actions. Everyone has seven stages of God's program from birth, grave and to eternity.

“And I saw in the right hand of him that sat on the throne a book written within and on the backside, sealed with seven seals” (Revelation 5:1).

Abel was born great but his life was cut short by household wickedness. He took the issue of household witchcraft very lightly, and followed his elder brother Cain to an evil field. There, he must have refused to do evil, or wrong sacrifice introduced to him by his brother, who grew annoyed and slew him in an evil field. He was born, but he never lived to open any stage on God's divine seal for his life because of premature death.

“And Cain talked with Abel his brother: and it came to pass, when they were in the field, that Cain rose up against Abel his brother, and slew him” (Genesis 4:8).

Methuselah was born and he spent 969 years in this world but he was manipulated to live under the will of the devil. The devil wrote a secret sealed book and led him out of God's plan. God had a program for him but he never opened God's seal, read or acted on them. The seven scrolls of God's plan for him, written within and on the backside, was hidden from him from birth to the grave. He lived outside God's will all the days of his life.

“And Methuselah lived an hundred eighty and seven years, and begat Lamech: And Methuselah lived after he begat Lamech seven hundred eighty and two years, and begat sons and daughters: And all the days of Methuselah were nine hundred sixty and nine years: and he died” (Genesis 5:25-27).

Methuselah lost his personal identity because his focus was wrongly directed. He spent his years outside God, busy producing children without reference to God. The scroll or seal of an individual written by God can be lost or destroyed by the devil. A whole nation's divine seal can be wasted by the devil. God is looking for a representative who can stand for others and claim God's plans for any group. The people of Moab's days lost their divine program because they failed to believe the man that has the program sheet or divine timetable of their destiny. When you fail to search for your foundation -the evil record of your ancestors- you may not know how to go about your life. Things that will be happening in your life will look very strange to you.

“And all flesh died that moved upon the earth, both of fowl, and of cattle, and of beast, and of every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth, and every man: All in whose nostrils was the breath of life, of all that was in the dry land, died. And every living substance was destroyed which was upon the face of the ground, both man, and cattle, and the creeping things, and the fowl of the heaven; and they were destroyed from the earth: and Noah only remained alive, and they that were with him in the ark. And the waters prevailed upon the earth an hundred and fifty days” (Genesis 7:21-24).

Without the knowledge of God’s writings for your life, you may not be coordinated in life. The nation that fail to get, read, and understand God’s program for their lives are bound to fail. Jesus asked the disciples to remember Lot’s wife. Lot’s wife received God’s program but she looked back to the program of the devil and her end was disastrous.

“But his wife looked back from behind him, and she became a pillar of salt” (Genesis 19:26)

You may know God’s write-ups for your life, and still fail if you disobey the contents. Saul, the first king of Israel, knew God’s will but he ignored it and his life was full of disgrace. The archer hit him and he committed suicide.

“And the battle went sore against Saul, and the archers hit him; and he was sore wounded of the archers. Then said Saul unto his armourbearer, Draw thy sword, and thrust me through therewith; lest these uncircumcised come and thrust me through, and abuse me. But his armourbearer would not; for he was sore afraid.

Therefore Saul took a sword, and fell upon it...And it came to pass on the morrow, when the Philistines came to strip the slain, that they found Saul and his three sons fallen in mount Gilboa. And they cut off his head, and stripped off his armour, and sent into the land of the Philistines round about, to publish it in the house of their idols, and among the people. And they put his armour in the house of Ashtaroth: and they fastened his body to the wall of Bethshan. And when the inhabitants of Jabeshgilead heard of that which the Philistines had done to Saul; All the valiant men arose, and went all night, and took the body of Saul and the bodies of his sons from the wall of Bethshan, and came to Jabesh, and burnt them there. And they took their bones, and buried them under a tree at Jabesh, and fasted seven days” (1 Samuel 31:3-4, 8-13).

Some people were born, but they only opened one stage of God’s level for their lives. Some died in ignorance while many worked against the seal of God for their lives. Understanding God’s write-ups for your life is very important. It will help you to reject and fight against anything that will oppose what is written concerning your life (Daniel 12:8-9; Luke 16:19-23).

Today, we have many Christians in the church who accept the evil write ups into their lives because of ignorance.

The rich man was diverted by the devil and prospered out of God’s plans, without any suffering, all the days of his life. The poor man was diverted to believe that being a child of God, he should remain poor and suffer unto death. He has a wrong DESIRE program in his life by the devil. Though he died a child of God, he never opened the seal of God for his life’s prosperity as a true child of God. Ignorance of God’s will for your life can render you useless even as a Christian. The plan of God for your life is in the hand of God and as a child of God, you can receive it now.

Sin and disobedience can cause the devil to look into God's seal for your life. The devil can fight against God's will for your life. He can delay you from knowing them but he can never destroy God's will perfectly. He can bury it but he can never destroy it. Gehazi's seal was lost because of receiving evil gifts and telling a lie. The people of Samaria in the days of Simon lost their divine write-ups when they were bewitched but they recovered it when they listened to the gospel, believed, and practiced it.

“But there was a certain man, called Simon, which beforetime in the same city used sorcery, and bewitched the people of Samaria, giving out that himself was some great one: To whom they all gave heed, from the least to the greatest, saying, This man is the great power of God. And to him they had regard, because that of long time he had bewitched them with sorceries...And when Simon saw that through laying on of the apostles' hands the Holy Ghost was given, he offered them money, Saying, Give me also this power, that on whomsoever I lay hands, he may receive the Holy Ghost” (Acts 8:9-11, 18-19).

David had a lot of battles for his life but at the end, he had a testimony that he pleased God at last. You can still recover your identify and start practicing the will of God for your life if you so desire.

“For David, after he had served his own generation by the will of God, fell on sleep, and was laid unto his fathers, and saw corruption.” (Acts 13:36).

David lived to serve his generation according to how it was written of him. At the beginning, he made many mistakes, because the devil was determined to prevent him from doing God’s will, but in the area of service to God and men of his generation, he tried and prevailed. If you repent and hand your life over to Christ, you can still make it.

The Great Fall

1. WAYSIDE FAMILIES:

A way is a thorough fare for travel or transportation from place to place. All manner of person, good or bad, travel through the way. All manner of evil spirits and human beings stop or stand by the way side to rest or watch the people on the way. A way is a route leading in a direction or toward an objective. A wayside family is exposed to all manner of attacks without protection.

“And he spake many things unto them in parables, saying, Behold, a sower went forth to sow; And when he sowed, some seeds fell by the way side, and the fowls came and devoured them up:” (Matthew 13:3-4).

The fowls on the way side are very hungry and destructive. They are also aware of all the information about to take place on the way side. They don't allow good thing to spring up in the wayside families. They kill everything spiritually in such families; making sure that nothing works out. They stand before every family member to kill any good thing that they are about to give birth to. They devour great destinies, businesses, and all greatness as soon as they are born in the wayside families.

“And his tail drew the third part of the stars of heaven, and did cast them to the earth: and the dragon stood before the woman which was ready to be delivered, for to devour her child as soon as it was born” (Revelation 12:4).

“And he brought the letter to the king of Israel, saying, Now when this letter is come unto thee, behold, I have therewith sent Naaman my servant to thee, that thou mayest recover him of his leprosy” (2 Kings 5:6).

Some enemies in the family are very destructive and greatly wicked. They devour the good things in the lives of such families and render their victims useless. The fowl in such families removes the strengths of people as soon as possible. They kill and devour every good plans and purpose before they were born or immediately after birth. They render great destined people useless and unproductive from birth to the grave. Their foundational fowls are very ready to waste their potentials and they use their victims to prosper greatly. They trade with human souls, potentials, and divine deposits.

“And it came to pass, as we went to prayer, a certain damsel possessed with a spirit of divination met us, which brought her masters much gain by soothsaying...And this did she many days. But Paul, being grieved, turned and said to the spirit, I command thee in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her. And he came out the same hour. And when her masters saw that the hope of their gains was gone, they caught Paul and Silas, and drew them into the marketplace unto the rulers” (Acts 16:16, 18-19).

They cause people to be useless to God, useless to themselves and their parents, but they become useful to their enemies, who use their destinies to make great gains. The fowls in the wayside families were there before the families got settled in those places. They were in existence before any family. At other times, the family head or ancestors invites them through sin or sacrifices to evil spirits.

“Wherefore hast thou despised the commandment of the LORD, to do evil in his sight? thou hast killed Uriah the Hittite with the sword, and hast taken his wife to be thy wife, and hast slain him with the sword of the children of Ammon. Now therefore the sword shall never depart from thine house; because thou hast despised me, and hast taken the wife of Uriah the Hittite to be thy wife. Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will raise up evil against thee out of thine own house, and I will take thy wives before thine eyes, and give them unto thy neighbour, and he shall lie with thy wives in the sight of this sun. For thou didst it secretly: but I will do this thing before all Israel, and before the sun” (2 Samuel 12:9-12).

The fowls on the way side families are of many sizes and colours. Every person in such families must ask questions and discover the fowls in his family. These fowls are planted in our foundations to devour people's greatness. Unless you face the fowls and destroy them, such families can never make it, both locally and internationally. Ananias and Sapphira invited the fowls into their family when they told lies against the Holy Spirit. These fowls killed them and made their children orphans and exposed to all manner of dangers. Gehazi told a lie, and as a result, the fowls of lies and leprosy were planted into his foundation.

“The leprosy therefore of Naaman shall cleave unto thee, and unto thy seed for ever. And he went out from his presence a leper as white as snow” (2 Kings 5:27).

The people born on the wayside families are not free at all. They are always exposed and naked, without protections from every demonic attack. There is always problem waiting for them ever before birth or at arrival into any place. In schools, there is always a waiting problem to attack them. At home, the fowls of the family are waiting for them. Their problems push them from birth to the grave. They are captives, slaves, and lepers before birth, and they are seen and treated like that everywhere they go. In fact, everywhere they go, everything devours them. They are born with an invisible mark of hatred and rejection. Problems of all types, terrors, incurable diseases, shame, reproaches and deaths, characterizes their lives. They are enslaved to Satan.

To be born by the wayside is to be born out of protections, parental care, and provisions. Those who are born on the wayside need an emergency New Testament deliverance. Jesus Christ is the great physician in our emergency unit. He is ready to deliver those who are born on the wayside (Revelation 12:5-6). No matter your condition, if you run into the divine emergency unit, Jesus will deliver you from the womb of a fowl, even if you have been swallowed.

“And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony; and they loved not their lives unto the death” (Revelation 12:11).

If you are born in a wayside family, you can be set free, no matter how long you have been swallowed by the fowls of your family. Have you discovered the fowl of your family? Ask questions, research and pray to God, and He will expose the fowls of your family to you. Repent, confess your sins and that of your ancestors. Map out strategic prayer warfare, and the fowls of your family will be executed. The enemy can raise a fowl for your life, family, health or business but you can rise above them. You can kill every fowl in your family. You can be freed from all the attacks of your family fowls.

“And the LORD gave unto Israel all the land which he sware to give unto their fathers; and they possessed it, and dwelt therein. And the LORD gave them rest round about, according to all that he sware unto their fathers: and there stood not a man of all their enemies before them; the LORD delivered all their enemies into their hand. There failed not ought of any good thing which the LORD had spoken unto the house of Israel; all came to pass” (Joshua 21:43-45).

2. STONY FAMILIES:

A stone is a piece of rock for a specified function as a building block, or a paving block. A stony ground (family) or a stony foundation is a ground in a burrstone millstone. A stony family is destitute of things that can help human growth or development. It is a very hard place for the survival of human beings and other things.

“Some fell upon stony places, where they had not much earth: and forthwith they sprung up, because they had no deepness of earth: And when the sun was up, they were scorched; and because they had no root, they withered away” (Matthew 13:5-6).

These are sets of people born in some families that started life with great expectations. They were doing well, and all things and people favoured them.

Their beginning is so well. At the start of their lives, problems run away as if there was no problem in their world. They do very well at the early stages of their lives. They are very intelligent, industrious and brilliant at the initial stage. But all of a sudden, their failures come up as a storm. They rise so high at the beginning, but they fall quickly to the bottom and never rise again. At their fall, all things and people around them were not interested in helping them to rise again. They rise up so high and fall down so low without a helper. In their family, no one is interested in helping one another. They have people around them, but few are able to help each other.

Those who had something at all in their family just had enough to survive with. They are in the earth but the earthly things around them are distanced from them. Their fall is once and for all; no remedy or second chance of survival. They sprung up and went to school, but nobody was to pay their school fees. They were supposed to rise to be international teachers, or professors of note; but they had not much earth, so forthwith, they are now village classroom teachers. They sprung up and with zeal; they wanted to make it. But because they had nobody to see them through the university level, they stopped schooling.

They tried to survive academically but they could not, because, they had no deepness of earth. Their foundation on earth was too shallow. They have a weak foundation. They have no place on earth to start with. Their families are very poor, with nothing good to inherit on earth: No good food, no good accommodation, no good clothes and everything on earth that is good. They try to survive by all means but they are standing on a weak foundation. Their foundation is bloody and the blood is crying against them day in day out.

“Then there was a famine in the days of David three years, year after year; and David enquired of the LORD. And the LORD answered, It is for Saul, and for his bloody house, because he slew the Gibeonites” (2 Samuel 21:1).

They were living in the world without divine supports. They were initially successful but in just one mistake, they failed and there was nobody to help them. So they failed and rose up no more. When the sun of trials and temptations came upon them, they were scorched and because they had not root, they withered away. They were deceived to depend on their ancestral foundation. They trusted vain things for their survival. They practiced religion without Christ. They depended on the customs, and fetish charms more than God. They were deceived to believe errors. They heard the word of God but they never put them in practice. They refused to live by the word of God as it was written. They were wise in their own conceit, so they became foolish for rejecting the wisdom of God. They built their hope and faith on earthly things; the sand of the earth. They were great investors but their investment never lasted.

They labour for nothing and their own children rise to waste their evil investments. They live to see all that they have suffered in life to be destroyed in a moment of time. They fall and are destroyed without notice (Matthew 7: 25-27).

Anything one is doing without Christ is useless because such things will soon be wasted. If your foundation is faulty, you will not succeed, no matter how much you are succeeding now. The only foundation that will succeed the test of time is the one built upon Christ. The only rock that can hold any foundation is the Rock of ages, the Lord Jesus Christ. Other stony families' foundations are nothing.

“For other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ” (1Corinthians 3:11).

Whatever investment you are making now, will soon be tried because one day, they shall be made manifest and be declared for judgment.

“Every man's work shall be made manifest: for the day shall declare it, because it shall be revealed by fire; and the fire shall try every man's work of what sort it is” (1 Corinthians 3:13).

Those who are born in the stony family foundation shall surely face the judgment of God. The sun of judgment shall have a face up very soon with whatever we do on earth.

“Some fell upon stony places, where they had not much earth: and forthwith they sprung up, because they had no deepness of earth: And when the sun was up, they were scorched; and because they had no root, they withered away” (Matthew. 13:5-6).

3. THORNY FAMILY:

A thorn is a woody plant bearing sharp impending processes. It is a sharp rigid process on a plant, sharp pointed, and leafless modified branch. It is something that causes distress or irritation; full of difficulties or controversial points. It is simply defined as a problem.

“And some fell among thorns; and the thorns sprung up, and choked them” (Matthew 13:7).

It is an unfriendly environment or situations surrounding a person. Joseph was born in the midst of people who hated him with perfect hatred and could not speak peaceably unto him (Genesis 37:4, 8, 10-11).

Everyone in the family misunderstood Joseph, including his own father. Joseph was born in a thorny family foundation. Everything and people around him in his father's house made life difficult for him. They even conspired and sold him as a slave to a strange land.

“And when they saw him afar off, even before he came near unto them, they conspired against him to slay him

Then there passed by Midianites merchantmen; and they drew and lifted up Joseph out of the pit, and sold Joseph to the Ishmeelites for twenty pieces of silver: and they brought Joseph into Egypt”.
(Genesis 37:18, 28).

In the family of Adam, Cain was a thorn, who sprung up and choked Abel unto death. Every one of us has to make a research to find out the thorn in our family that is about to spring up and choke your destiny. Korah, Dathan and Abiram were a thorn in the government of Israel to choke Moses up, but Moses prevailed. Your wife, husband, parents, children or something around you now may be the instrument the devil wants to use to choke you up. The wife of Lot may not have looked back and died immediately. She may have cried with a loud voice, calling Lot a lot of good names, but Lot refused to look back. She may have cried for help; shouting, “Darling Lot” or “sweet heart, help me.” But Lot was determined to obey the voice of the Lord. She must have tried to hold back Lot, but Lot was not Adam that can easily be persuaded by his wife to disobey

God's commandment.

“But his wife looked back from behind him, and she became a pillar of salt” (Genesis 19:26).

The wife of Lot was a thorn in his life but he refused to bow to the evil will of his wife. Lot would have been converted to a pillar of salt but he chose to obey God. Joseph did not allow the human hatred around him to tamper with the dreams of his greatness. He was faithful in hard times even with all manner of temptations around him. Even when he became prosperous, the ‘[prosperity around him became a thorn in his life but he chose to remain godly and loyal to his God. The sudden prosperity around him did not make him abandon God, even though the devil wanted to use it against him as a thorn in his life. He was hated; but he remained a committed brother with hard work. In prison, he remained faithful to God; a true believer. His environment was unfriendly to him, yet he remained faithful to God; seeking nothing but the glory of God. Joseph's promotion in Egypt as a prime minister was a thorn in his life to make him mismanage things. But he became a good administrator, builder and a protector of his brethren who hated him.

Solomon grew up in the midst of beautiful women and they became a thorn in his flesh. Eventually, they choked his destiny. Eve grew up in the midst of beautiful looking fruits and they became a thorn that sprung up and choked her destiny. The questions are, “what are the thorns that sprung up and choked the people before you in your family?” “What are the present thorns around you now?”

The thorn that choked the sons of Noah was on how to build a great house, even if it meant disobeying God's word. They started the house but they could not finish it. The thorn that sprung up against Pharaoh was the wife of Abraham. He took Sarah but the Lord plagued his whole house with great plagues. The thorn in the life of the children of Israel that sprung up against them was the idol that Aaron made for them. But Moses came down from the mountain and broke them to pieces. Your father's idol may be a thorn that has sprung up to choke everyone in your family. You can rise up like Moses and destroy every ancestral covenants and curses.

Immorality may be a thorn assigned to spring up to choke everyone in your family but you can oppose immorality today.

The sons of Eli were a thorn that sprung up to choke the lives of many ladies, who came to pray in the house of God. It is not the will of God for the thorns anywhere to spring up to kill. You must destroy every personal or family thorn that has sprung up against you. Is there any woman, man or problem that has sprung up against you? Jezebel was a thorn in the life of Prophet Elijah. She sprung up against his life and ministry but she failed. Athaliah rose up as a thorn in her own house against all her grandchildren.

“And when Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, she arose and destroyed all the seed royal” (2 Kings 11:1).

Premature death may be a thorn in your family that sprang up and wasted everyone in your family line. All manner of sickness and diseases may be a thorn in your family line. Jesus is the solution to every evil thorn assigned to spring up against you.

“And Jesus went about all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing all manner of sickness and all manner of disease among the people. And his fame went throughout all Syria: and they brought unto him all sick people that were taken with divers diseases and torments, and those which were possessed with devils, and those which were lunatick, and those that had the palsy; and he healed them. And there followed him great multitudes of people from Galilee, and from Decapolis, and from Jerusalem, and from Judaea, and from beyond Jordan” (Matthew 4:23-25).

Your thorn may be the competition to be like others; to build an empire. It is very important for you to discover the thorn assigned against your family. If you fail to discover and destroy the thorn that sprang up in your family, you may be the next target of destruction.

Family or environmental thorns, spring up and waste great stars. They oppress family members with spiritual blindness. They attack victims’ helpers unto surrendering. They influence people against their helpers. They influence people to take wrong decisions. They bring demonic fear into the heart of their victims. They attack and destroy marriages of their victims. The thorns that spring up in families attack victims with demonic weakness and unimaginable rejections. They close good doors against their victims and cause them to be tired of life. They divert good things assigned to their victims. They multiply evil and sorrows in the life of their victims. They render family business useless and cause them to struggle in vain. The thorns in families place yokes of suffering and hardship in their victim’s life. They manipulate family members into wrong projects. They make victims double enemies of God. They arrest good things meant for victims and divert them to their agents.

“Our inheritance is turned to strangers, our houses to aliens... We have drunken our water for money; our wood is sold unto us”

(Lamentation 5:2, 4).

4. GOOD FAMILIES:

These groups are true believers in the family of God with equal opportunity, yet, they had different results (Matt 13:8). They are also like a family born of the same parents with equal rights, benefits and entitlements. They are more or less like Jacob and Esau and yet they had different results. They are like students in one classroom with the same teacher and equal opportunity. It is possible to be in the same class with someone without being classmates.

*“Now therefore ye are no more strangers and foreigners, but fellowcitizens with the saints, and of the household of God;”
(Ephesians 2:19).*

These people have everything it takes to succeed in life and yet some of them failed, others reached credit level, while the remaining scored a hundred percent level.

“But other fell into good ground, and brought forth fruit, some an hundredfold, some sixtyfold, some thirtyfold” (Matthew 13:8).

The candidates who sixty percent, and the ones who scored a hundred percent used their opportunities well, but the rest misused theirs.

Those who made it among them used divine weapons well; but those who failed, failed because they ignored the battle of life. They ignored the presence of the ghost of the past. The presence of the ancestral curses and covenants were all ignored. They failed to use the weapons of their warfare. They did not recognize the great struggle that lies before them as believers. They refused to accept the fact that though they are believers, they are still in the world, which is still a battle ground. As long as you are in the world, there is a war between God's children and the devil's agents. Paul described this world as a wrestling ground.

“For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places” (Ephesians 6:12).

You may have all that it takes in your family, either natural or spiritual; but the devil may not allow you to use them.

The world is a place where we have to wrestle against many evil forces. It is a place we wrestle against unseen forces of darkness and wicked evil powers both on earth, in the heavenlies, and the body of waters. It is a place that the evil forces of darkness has settled many years before we were born.

To succeed on this earth and bring forth sixty to hundred folds, you must have to fight it out with the devil and his agents.

“Fight the good fight of faith, lay hold on eternal life, whereunto thou art also called, and hast professed a good profession before many witnesses” (1 Timothy 6:12).

To fight the devil, you have to be on the Lord's side. You must make sure that you are holy; holding eternal life without fear. You must fight the good fight of faith in Christ Jesus.

“And every man that striveth for the mastery is temperate in all things. Now they do it to obtain a corruptible crown; but we an incorruptible. I therefore so run, not as uncertainly; so fight I, not as one that beateth the air: But I keep under my body, and bring it into subjection: lest that by any means, when I have preached to others, I myself should be a castaway” (1 Corinthians 9:25-27).

You must fight and strive for the best in the Lord. You must live a Spirit-controlled life without allowing anything to corrupt your life.

The people with thirty fold level, relaxed, or fought carnally; allowing the things of this life to corrupt them. They failed to get pass mark at the end of their stay on earth. They allowed their lives to be yoked with one or two things of this world. They ran, but they did not complete their race with holiness (Hebrew 12:14). They fought, but they fought with carnal weapons. They were not determined, diligent, and disciplined. They walked in the flesh and warred in the flesh. They prayed, but their prayers did not get to the root of their foundation. The strongholds of their ancient families were not pulled down. They allowed the enemies to imagine evil against them all the time. Their enemies exalted themselves so high because they were not cast down and brought into captivity.

“For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war after the flesh: (For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strong holds;) Casting down imagination, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ;” (2 Corinthians 10:3-5).

They were like the five foolish virgins that failed to take oil into their vessels with their lamps, though they had equal opportunities like others.

“Then shall the kingdom of heaven be likened unto ten virgins, which took their lamps, and went forth to meet the bridegroom. And five of them were wise, and five were foolish. They that were foolish took their lamps, and took no oil with them: But the wise took oil in their vessels with their lamps. While the bridegroom tarried, they all slumbered and slept. And at midnight there was a cry made, Behold, the bridegroom cometh; go ye out to meet him. Then all those virgins arose, and trimmed their lamps. And the foolish said unto the wise, Give us of your oil; for our lamps are gone out. But the wise answered, saying, Not so; lest there be not enough for us and you: but go ye rather to them that sell, and buy for yourselves. And while they went to buy, the bridegroom came; and they that were ready went in with him to the marriage: and the door was shut. Afterward came also the other virgins, saying, Lord, Lord, open to us. But he answered and said, Verily I say unto you, I know you not.

Watch therefore, for ye know neither the day nor the hour wherein the Son of man cometh” (Matthew 25:1-13).

They were sleeping; lazing around, while others were busy praying and watching. They allowed the enemy to sow evil seeds into their lives. They neglected their divine assignment on earth, and the devil sowed evil seeds into their lives. They neglected their divine assignment on earth, and abandoned their duty post. They were politicizing, tribal-minded, gossiping and socializing in the midst of crossfire; moving left and right in the battle field.

“But while men slept, his enemy came and sowed tares among the wheat, and went his way” (Matt 13:25).

*“If the foundations be destroyed, what can the righteous do?”
(Psalm 11:3).*

The truth is plain; man that is born of a woman has a wrong foundation. But the question is what do we do about it?

Who Will Tell Me Of My Foundation?

One of the greatest problems of our time is ignorance of our foundations. The woman of Samaria's condition was better because she knew where her fathers worshipped. Many people in our generation do not know where their ancestors worshipped, and what they worshipped.

“Our fathers worshipped in this mountain; and ye say, that in Jerusalem is the place where men ought to worship” (John 4:20).

She insisted in worshipping where her father worshipped without knowing the gods that her (fathers) ancestors were worshipping. There are many worship places today all over the world, but the people worshipping in these places know not the foundation.

“Ye worship ye know not what: we know what we worship: for salvation is of the Jews” (John 4:22).

The foundation of the worship of the woman of Samaria was faulty but nobody told her the truth. Not even her father told her the truth about the foundation of her worship. The first set of her (ancestors) fathers, who worshipped in that mount, laid a wrong foundation. They separated from the divine foundation laid by God, and started a rebellious worship group.

“And Jeroboam said in his heart, Now shall the kingdom return to the house of David: If this people go up to do sacrifice in the house of the LORD at Jerusalem, then shall the heart of this people turn again unto their lord, even unto Rehoboam king of Judah, and they shall kill me, and go again to Rehoboam king of Judah. Whereupon the king took counsel, and made two calves of gold, and said unto them, It is too much for you to go up to Jerusalem: behold thy gods, O Israel, which brought thee up out of the land of Egypt. And he set the one in Bethel, and the other put he in Dan. And this thing became a sin: for the people went to worship before the one, even unto Dan. And he made an house of high places, and made priests of the lowest of the people, which were not of the sons of Levi” (1Kings 12: 26-31).

They worshipped for thousands of years but they were not saved. Their foundation was faulty right from the beginning. The first person that laid the foundation of worship at Bethel had an evil agenda. He did not consult God in his plan before laying the foundation. Their offspring, including the woman of Samaria, was zealous for God but not according to knowledge. They were righteous in their own way but they were ignorant of God’s righteousness. They submitted to the doctrines of their evil group but they refused to submit to God’s own righteousness.

“Brethren, my heart's desire and prayer to God for Israel is, that they might be saved. For I bear them record that they have a zeal of God, but not according to knowledge. For they being ignorant of God's righteousness, and going about to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God” (Romans 10:1-3).

Their foundation was faulty but their ancestors never told them the truth. In one of my missionary assignment outside my country, I met a young lady. She told me that she has many other brothers and sisters born of the same mother. She was born again together with her mother. She was the only person her mother called and confided in. She knew her foundation but the rest of the family never knew the truth about their foundation. Her father was impotent and could not impregnate his wife. Before the woman got born again, she went about bearing children from different men of questionable characters.

All of them who are children of her mother came from different fathers. Unknown to each of them, the person they called their father was never their father. Many of them will live and die without knowing their father.

On daily basis, they talked and listened to a man they called their father without knowing that they were living with a total stranger. The man in question they called their father may not know that he was not the right father to those children. The fathers to those children may be his worst enemy; yet he lived with his enemies, feed them, and trained some of them, who will grow up to become his worst enemy.

“So that the man that is tender among you, and very delicate, his eye shall be evil toward his brother, and toward the wife of his bosom, and toward the remnant of his children which he shall leave:” (Deuteronomy. 28:54).

The confusion, hatred, fighting, and lack of peace in many families are because of evil foundations. Many are living with their worst enemies, who are regarded as their sons and daughters. There is nothing like natural affection; showing that this person is my brother, sister, father or relation. That is why people of the same family cohabit.

Many people have so many children born by people in faraway families. Many people have divorced their wives to marry their own daughters; and many strange things are taking place without our knowledge. Many parents are afraid of telling their children the truth because on knowing the truth, those children can just become angry and kill their so called fathers and mothers. There are secrets that your parents know but they can never tell you. The woman in our story told her trusted daughter because they were both born again and she warned her not to let others know.

“Without understanding, covenant breakers, without natural affection, implacable, unmerciful:” (Romans 1:31).

Those who prostitute may have slept with their fathers, children, or even mothers, without knowing. In some countries in central Africa, under the influence of alcohol, they do a lot of evil without knowing? When a father, mother, brother, or daughter are under the influence of alcohol, anything can happen. Under that evil influence, many have impregnated their daughters without knowing it. The person you now call your grandfather may be your direct father. Many strange things have taken place without our knowledge.

“Come, let us make our father drink wine, and we will lie with him, that we may preserve seed of our father. And they made their father drink wine that night: and the firstborn went in, and lay with her father; and he perceived not when she lay down, nor when she arose. And it came to pass on the morrow, that the firstborn said unto the younger, Behold, I lay yesternight with my father: let us make him drink wine this night also; and go thou in, and lie with him, that we may preserve seed of our father. And they made their father drink wine that night also: and the younger arose, and lay with him; and he perceived not when she lay down, nor when she arose. Thus were both the daughters of Lot with child by their father. And the firstborn bare a son, and called his name Moab: the same is the father of the Moabites unto this day. And the younger, she also bare a son, and called his name Benammi: the same is the father of the children of Ammon unto this day” (Genesis. 19:32-38).

How are you sure that the town, village or city you claim to be your place is correct? Are you sure the person you call your father is your right father? I agree that our parents can tell us some truths about our foundation. They may tell you some powers they covenanted with before your conception but there are things they may never tell you. Your father may not be aware of all your mother's involvement in witchcraft before your conception. Some women are desperate to do anything to get a child. They can enter into covenant with any power without the consent of their husband to have a child. They may not live long enough to tell their journey of life. Some fathers die while their babies are still in the womb. They may not tell their wives that they have dedicated the unborn babies to the water spirit or some powers. You can use all the information you know to pray for your foundation; but if your problem continues to worsen, what can the righteous do? If you used all the information your father told you, and prayed all the prayers you can pray and things remains unchanged, what can the righteous do?

*“If the foundations be destroyed, what can the righteous do
(Psalm 11:3).*

If you visit all the places of deliverance, do all that you are told to do and still your situation remained the same or even got worse; what can the righteous do? Who is the righteous? The righteous is someone who has received Christ, born again and living a Christian life. The righteous should go direct to God because He knows all the secrets (Deuteronomy. 29:29).

God knows more than all the deliverance ministers and the prophets in the whole world put together. The deliverance ministers, senior pastors, and prophets may look at you and insult you; but God can never insult you. All your helpers and prayer warriors may misunderstand you, or brand you as the worst sinner; but God knows your foundation better than them. Medical science may conclude negatively about your case with an evil medical report. But God has the answer to every question (2 Samuel 21:1).

Gifted ministers of the gospel may be blinded to the past but God knows and sees all the past to the present clearly. Men who are mightily gifted can be ignorant about your past and as a result, they may be tired of you but not God. Great respected men of God may give you painful, heart breaking counsels and bad conclusions. Men of God have made many mistakes, and misunderstood their church members but God never makes any mistake. Eli misunderstood Hannah but God understood her very well, and answered her prayers. Many ministers have shut their doors against people with difficulties, secret, and hidden evil foundations; but God is not like that.

Jesus Is The Answer

Jesus is the perfect answer to any question about everything, including destroyed foundations. He can enter into any office to get any information. He can enter into any foundation and discover the greatest secret. He has the authority to open any seal; in hell, heaven, or on earth. No power can restrict Him or stand against Him. He is worthy to take any seal, open it, read it, and interpret the writings thereof (Revelation 5:2).

One of the purposes of this book is to direct you and give you an outline for your personal deliverance.

If your foundation is sealed against you; Jesus is qualified, and worthy to open the seven seals. Others may be disqualified but Jesus cannot be disqualified. No vision can be hidden from Christ. He is the Ancient of days, who existed before all foundations. Every dominion is under Him and every kingdom of the nations on earth bow before Him. Both the visible and invisible bow to Him.

“I saw in the night visions, and, behold, one like the Son of man came with the clouds of heaven, and came to the Ancient of days, and they brought him near before him. And there was given him dominion, and glory, and a kingdom, that all people, nations, and languages, should serve him: his dominion is an everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away, and his kingdom that which shall not be destroyed” (Daniel 7:13-14).

“And one of the elders saith unto me, Weep not: behold, the Lion of the tribe of Juda, the Root of David, hath prevailed to open the book, and to loose the seven seals thereof. And I beheld, and, lo, in the midst of the throne and of the four beasts, and in the midst of the elders, stood a Lamb as it had been slain, having seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven Spirits of God sent forth into all the earth” (Revelation 5:5-6).

He is the Lion of the tribe of Judah; the root of David; the lamb slain, yet alive, and standing. When the enemies killed Him, buried Him and closed up His chapter, they saw Him standing to their surprise (Revelation 5:9). He was killed, yet He arose and redeemed us to God. Jesus can give you the details of your foundation. He is the answer with an answer to all your questions.

CHAPTER THREE

Where Are Your Ancestors?

Sinful Ancestors

An ancestor is one from whom a person descends; or the line of descent. They are our forefathers, forerunners, progenitors of a more recent or existence species or group. It is a person of an earlier period of common heritage.

“And the LORD God took the man, and put him into the garden of Eden to dress it and to keep it. And the LORD God commanded the man, saying, Of every tree of the garden thou mayest freely eat: But of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, thou shalt not eat of it: for in the day that thou eatest thereof thou shalt surely die” (Genesis 2:15-17).

Man was originally created to be righteous, and to remain righteous in the image of God. Man had once walked in innocence, holiness and purity but later, he willingly transgressed and disobeyed his Creator. That was how man fell into the debt of unrighteous living and got corrupted. In consequence, every man on earth was affected and naturally began to commit sin.

“O foolish Galatians, who hath bewitched you, that ye should not obey the truth, before whose eyes Jesus Christ hath been evidently set forth, crucified among you? This only would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith? Are ye so foolish? having begun in the Spirit, are ye now made perfect by the flesh? Have ye suffered so many things in vain? if it be yet in vain. He therefore that ministereth to you the Spirit, and worketh miracles among you, doeth he it by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith? Even as Abraham believed God, and it was accounted to him for righteousness” (Galatians 3:1-6).

As a result of man’s disobedience, man was judged and driven out of God’s presence.

“Unto the woman he said, I will greatly multiply thy sorrow and thy conception; in sorrow thou shalt bring forth children; and thy desire shall be to thy husband, and he shall rule over thee. And unto Adam he said, Because thou hast hearkened unto the voice of thy wife, and hast eaten of the tree, of which I commanded thee, saying, Thou shalt not eat of it: cursed is the ground for thy sake; in sorrow shalt thou eat of it all the days of thy life; Thorns also and thistles shall it bring forth to thee; and thou shalt eat the herb of the field; In the sweat of thy face shalt thou eat bread, till thou return unto the ground; for out of it wast thou taken: for dust thou art, and unto dust shalt thou return. And Adam called his wife's name Eve; because she was the mother of all living.

Unto Adam also and to his wife did the LORD God make coats of skins, and clothed them. And the LORD God said, Behold, the man is become as one of us, to know good and evil: and now, lest he put forth his hand, and take also of the tree of life, and eat, and live for ever: Therefore the LORD God sent him forth from the garden of Eden, to till the ground from whence he was taken. So he drove out the man; and he placed at the east of the garden of Eden Cherubims, and a flaming sword which turned every way, to keep the way of the tree of life” (Genesis 3:16-24).

The whole earth and all creation were reduced by a curse issued against it. All men were brought under sin and they all became captives to the devil. Man was brought under the sentence of death.

Because man could not pay the price to deliver himself, God took it upon himself and sent his only begotten son, the Lord Jesus Christ to deliver us.

“For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life” (John 3:16).

All our ancestors were defiled by sin; corrupted and contaminated. Only repentance and faith in Christ can keep a man out of evil foundation. As people continued to multiply on earth, the gospel was being preached. People began to move from place to place, city to city and nation to nation. Some settled in Africa, Europe, America, etc. Wherever men settled, before they got there, some invisible beings, living over there try to influence them into evil. There are some powers that came to settle on earth ever before men were born. Those powers work against God and anyone who wishes to serve God.

“And the angels which kept not their first estate, but left their own habitation, he hath reserved in everlasting chains under darkness unto the judgment of the great day” (Jude 6).

These residential evil powers give men or influence men to observe some customs and traditions that contradict God’s will. At times, they enter into people living in that environment, and can move through them, talk through them, and rule people in that area through those people. They teach people to observe evil traditions that contradict the scriptures.

“Beware lest any man spoil you through philosophy and vain deceit, after the tradition of men, after the rudiments of the world, and not after Christ” (Colossians 2:8).

They influence people to build and worship idols. Some have their idols in the crossroads; some worship images, animals, trees, etc. Those idols, images and some human beings that people worship are possessed by the invisible resident spirits (Jude 6).

These invisible evil spirits can answer their prayers; do some good things to the people that worship them. When the person that worshiped them die, they take the person to hell fire. They can at times appear with the dead person’s body. They can talk through such people, and give instructions through such people. At times, they can give living people who serve them power to invoke dead ancestors. Those dead ancestors can be used to deceive others because when they were alive, they sold their bodies to the spirit of the land. Even after their death, the spirit of the land can still use them to appear to people or give instructions.

“Let no man therefore judge you in meat, or in drink, or in respect of an holyday, or of the new moon, or of the sabbath days: Which are a shadow of things to come; but the body is of Christ. Let no man beguile you of your reward in a voluntary humility and worshipping of angels, intruding into those things which he hath not seen, vainly puffed up by his fleshly mind, And not holding the Head, from which all the body by joints and bands having nourishment ministered, and knit together, increaseth with the increase of God. Wherefore if ye be dead with Christ from the rudiments of the world, why, as though living in the world, are ye subject to ordinances, (Touch not; taste not; handle not; Which all are to perish with the using;) after the commandments and doctrines of men? Which things have indeed a shew of wisdom in will worship, and humility, and neglecting of the body; not in any honour to the satisfying of the flesh” (Colossians. 2:16-23).

Those evil-resident demons possess native doctors, herbalists, witches and wizards, and talk to people through them. They can create an image of a righteous dead person and make you believe that the dead person has risen to give you an instruction. At times, what they say through such dead people may be what is about to happen. They are spirits and they see in the spirit. They can pretend to be holy but their end is disastrous. They are called familiar spirits and they can impersonate people that are dead to deceive the simple-minded.

“Then said the woman, Whom shall I bring up unto thee? And he said, Bring me up Samuel. And when the woman saw Samuel, she cried with a loud voice: and the woman spake to Saul, saying, Why hast thou deceived me? for thou art Saul” (1 Samuel 28:11-12).

The familiar spirit is not the real Samuel, but the spirit is the spirit of the land that impersonated Samuel. That was the head of the evil spirit in that land because he has other gods that accompanied him to the earth (1 Samuel 28:13). The spirit being that impersonated Samuel was old; covered with a mantle. The spirit knew God’s program for the backslidden Saul and he spoke exactly that.

“And he said unto her, What form is he of? And she said, An old man cometh up; and he is covered with a mantle. And Saul perceived that it was Samuel, and he stooped with his face to the ground, and bowed himself. And Samuel said to Saul, Why hast thou disquieted me, to bring me up? And Saul answered, I am sore distressed; for the Philistines make war against me, and God is departed from me, and answereth me no more, neither by prophets, nor by dreams: therefore I have called thee, that thou mayest make known unto me what I shall do. Then said Samuel, Wherefore then dost thou ask of me, seeing the LORD is departed from thee, and is become thine enemy? And the LORD hath done to him, as he spake by me: for the LORD hath rent the kingdom out of thine hand, and given it to thy neighbour, even to David: Because thou obeyedst not the voice of the LORD, nor executedst his fierce wrath upon Amalek, therefore hath the LORD done this thing unto thee this day. Moreover the LORD will also deliver Israel with thee into the hand of the Philistines: and to morrow shalt thou and thy sons be with me: the LORD also shall deliver the host of Israel into the hand of the Philistines. Then Saul fell straightway all along on the earth, and was sore afraid, because of the words of Samuel: and there was no strength in him; for he had eaten no bread all the day, nor all the night” (1 Samuel 28:14-20).

If the devil can say “I am God; I seat in the seat of God.” So then, if he said “I am Samuel,” it is not a big deal. The spirit that wasted your ancestors can appear and use your ancestor’s face; and tell you real truths to deceive you. After all, he lived thousands of years before your ancestors came to settle in that land. He knows the details of the land more than your ancestors. He once entered into the king of Tyrus, and told people of the land that he is no more evil spirit. He is a very bad spirit but he entered into the prince of Tyrus and declared himself God.

“Son of man, say unto the prince of Tyrus, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Because thine heart is lifted up, and thou hast said, I am a God, I sit in the seat of God, in the midst of the seas; yet thou art a man, and not God, though thou set thine heart as the heart of God: Behold, thou art wiser than Daniel; there is no secret that they can hide from thee: With thy wisdom and with thine understanding thou hast gotten thee riches, and hast gotten gold and silver into thy treasures: By thy great wisdom and by thy traffick hast thou increased thy riches, and thine heart is lifted up because of thy riches: Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Because thou hast set thine heart as the heart of God; Behold, therefore I will bring strangers upon thee, the terrible of the nations: and they shall draw their swords against the beauty of thy wisdom, and they shall defile thy brightness. They shall bring thee down to the pit, and thou shalt die the deaths of them that are slain in the midst of the seas” (Ezekiel. 28:2-8).

These are evil spirits who accompanied the devil in the Garden of Eden to deceive Adam and Eve. After they overcame Adam, they were given all the territories of the earth to reside in. They were in your town before you were born and that is why they claimed to be wiser than Daniel. They were like saying, “you thought that Daniel was wise; we are wiser because there are things that God did not reveal to Daniel but we know them.”

“Behold, thou art wiser than Daniel; there is no secret that they can hide from thee... Thou hast been in Eden the garden of God; every precious stone was thy covering, the sardius, topaz, and the diamond, the beryl, the onyx, and the jasper, the sapphire, the emerald, and the carbuncle, and gold: the workmanship of thy tabrets and of thy pipes was prepared in thee in the day that thou wast created”(Ezekiel 28:3, 13).

People who do not know the scriptures very well will see a sinner, an unbeliever, a false prophet, or even a soothsayer, and just believe in him because he can see by the power of the familiar spirits. When someone’s life contradicts the scriptures, he is no more of God, even though he may be prophesying (Mathew 7:21-23).

They may see but they may not come from God. They may prophecy correctly, cast out devils, and do many wonderful works, but they use familiar spirits. It is possible for a spirit of a witchdoctor, who has familiar spirit to see, but their life may contradict God's word.

“Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, and have not charity, I am become as sounding brass, or a tinkling cymbal. And though I have the gift of prophecy, and understand all mysteries, and all knowledge; and though I have all faith, so that I could remove mountains, and have not charity, I am nothing. And though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned, and have not charity, it profiteth me nothing” (1 Corinthians. 13:1-3).

Any spirit, prophet, witchdoctor, preacher etc., that want you to observe traditions, customs, or live in sin is from the devil.

“For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ. And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light. Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works” (2 Corinthians. 11:13-15).

There are people who go to church but still observe the traditions of their ancestors. There are people who go to church but still consult witchdoctors, and false prophets to hear what their ancestors have said. Those things they tell you are not from your ancestors but from the familiar spirits that dealt with your ancestors. They can allow you to go to church, preach very well, and even do well, as long as you can sacrifice to them once in a while. They can allow you to sing very well in the church, once you can give people money to sacrifice or enquire from them on your behalf. You can even be a church owner, who fears God, but once you can serve them directly or indirectly you are a captive.

You may have an altar in your house or somewhere and yet come to church every Sunday. They will not have problems with you. You may give your parents money and pretend that you do not know that they are using it for sacrifice on your behalf. Nobody can mock God; you will get your reward sooner or later.

When the disciples were used by God to establish the church at Galatians, they were determined to serve God. After a short while, some people began to bring traditions into the church. Others were going to idols after serving God in the church. Many did not see the difference between traditions and Christianity. They believed that they can combine the two. It was a big confusion and Paul wrote a letter to them.

The familiar spirits, like an angel was appearing to some of them. They were receiving information from the gods; the idols of their late ancestors. Few of them were said to serve one God. At that point, Paul intervened and corrected the errors.

“Paul, an apostle, (not of men, neither by man, but by Jesus Christ, and God the Father, who raised him from the dead;) And all the brethren which are with me, unto the churches of Galatia: Grace be to you and peace from God the Father, and from our Lord Jesus Christ, Who gave himself for our sins, that he might deliver us from this present evil world, according to the will of God and our Father: To whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen. I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel” (Galatians 1:6-7).

Some insisted and decided that the god of their ancestors must be served. They were using the same bible to preach and yet they were receiving demonic angelic visitors from the grave; appearing to them through their dead ancestors.

“But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed. For do I now persuade men, or God? or do I seek to please men? for if I yet pleased men, I should not be the servant of Christ” (Galatians 1:8-10).

Paul told them that even if he [Paul] backslides and begins to preach by the influence of a familiar spirit, they should reject him and his preaching. He was saying that it is possible for one to preach good message today and backslide the next day to preach under the influence of a familiar spirit. It is possible for ancestral spirits to preach very well and yet ask one to observe traditions of the ancestors. It is also foolishness to believe in idols and believe in Christ.

“O foolish Galatians, who hath bewitched you, that ye should not obey the truth, before whose eyes Jesus Christ hath been evidently set forth, crucified among you? This only would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith? Are ye so foolish? having begun in the Spirit, are ye now made perfect by the flesh? Have ye suffered so many things in vain? if it be yet in vain” (Galatians 3:1-4).

Gideon was serving God but he was going through a lot of problems. The familiar spirits from his father's idol were really troubling him. He was supposed to be a great man; a deliverer of a whole nation. But he was a slave instead. He continued like that until God appeared to him and asked him to do something against his father's idol. He was advised to move out of the foundation laid by his ancestors into a new foundation.

“And it came to pass the same night, that the LORD said unto him, Take thy father's young bullock, even the second bullock of seven years old, and throw down the altar of Baal that thy father hath, and cut down the grove that is by it: And build an altar unto the LORD thy God upon the top of this rock, in the ordered place, and take the second bullock, and offer a burnt sacrifice with the wood of the grove which thou shalt cut down” (Judges 6:25-26).

Gideon thought that he could serve his God and fulfil his destiny without destroying his father's idols. It is a great deceit to think like that because the familiar spirits from your father's altar is not happy with your Christianity. You may be succeeding now but that is not the extent that God wants you to. Your father's altars want a compromise with you.

African foundation is very bad because they were built on idolatry. God hates idolatry, and anyone who worshiped idols is an enemy of God.

“And God spake all these words, saying, I am the LORD thy God, which have brought thee out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage. Thou shalt have no other gods before me. Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth: Thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them: for I the LORD thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me” (Exodus 20:1-5).

God is a jealous God, who hates a double standard life. You are saved, delivered, and brought into the church to serve God only. You must not have any other God.

“And Elijah came unto all the people, and said, How long halt ye between two opinions? if the LORD be God, follow him: but if Baal, then follow him. And the people answered him not a word” (1 Kings 18:21).

African nations have not only made graven images but they have worshipped idols for many generations. Our ancestors are dead and they are dead forever. The powers that now appears with their bodies to deceive you are familiar spirits. They are evil and very wicked spirits that want to destroy and waste destinies.

When you give your life to Christ, old ways of worship should pass away. You must completely do away with idolatry. You must learn of Christ and not on how to worship idols or consult your dead ancestors.

“Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls” (Mathew 11:28-29).

Samuel made it plain to the children of Israel that idols and God cannot go together. Idolatry must be put away for God to take its full place in your life

“And Samuel spake unto all the house of Israel, saying, If ye do return unto the LORD with all your hearts, then put away the strange gods and Ashtaroth from among you, and prepare your hearts unto the LORD, and serve him only: and he will deliver you out of the hand of the Philistines. Then the children of Israel did put away Baalim and Ashtaroth, and served the LORD only” (1 Samuel 7:3-4).

Righteous Ancestors

The righteous ancestors are people who answered the call of salvation and their faith is only in Christ Jesus. They are people who abandoned the traditions and the customs of men that contradicts the scriptures. They are people who responded to the universal call of God and took a step out of the worldly system of the world.

“Now the LORD had said unto Abram, Get thee out of thy country, and from thy kindred, and from thy father's house, unto a land that I will shew thee: And I will make of thee a great nation, and I will bless thee, and make thy name great; and thou shalt be a blessing: And I will bless them that bless thee, and curse him that curseth thee: and in thee shall all families of the earth be blessed. So Abram departed, as the LORD had spoken unto him; and Lot went with him: and Abram was seventy and five years old when he departed out of Haran” (Genesis 12:1-4).

These are people whom their ancestors took a decision for God and for God alone. These are people who abandoned the idols of their ancestors and worshipped God alone. They took their families out of the worldly system of their days, and commanded their children to serve God alone.

“And the LORD said, Shall I hide from Abraham that thing which I do; Seeing that Abraham shall surely become a great and mighty nation, and all the nations of the earth shall be blessed in him? For I know him, that he will command his children and his household after him, and they shall keep the way of the LORD, to do justice and judgment; that the LORD may bring upon Abraham that which he hath spoken of him” (Genesis 18:17-19).

If your ancestors have bowed down to idols and images, your ancestors were unrighteous. If your ancestors had sacrificed to idols, you are under the wrath of God. If your ancestors spoke to idols, God will write their iniquities on your head unto the third and fourth generation. If your ancestors looked up to gods, their iniquities will be written on your head. If they called on or sworn to other gods, you as their children are in trouble.

“Thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them: for I the LORD thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me” (Exodus 20:5).

If anyone has shed blood in your family, his children are in trouble. If they had oppressed the poor, destroyed others, acted in wickedness, practiced witchcraft, entered into evil covenants, and consulted evil spirits, you are operating under their foundation. Africans and many other continents of the world have idolatrous ancestors. The reason why America is standing today despite all the atrocities going on there is because they had righteous ancestors.

The nation of America was not founded in idolatry. Their early fathers were righteous, children of God. The founders of America were born again. Their forefathers were children of God under persecution because of their religious beliefs. They were pilgrims, who left their homes and families in Scooby, England in 1609, to the Netherlands where they found some religious tolerance.

According to history, they settled in Laden, Holland, and formed the England separatist church. They rejected every tradition or custom that opposed their practice of Christianity. They were determined to serve and worship only one true God. While they were in Laden, Holland, they became concerned that their children were losing their English identity and they were still thwarted in their efforts to worship God as they chose. These pilgrims decided to go to the new world, where they could live as Englishmen and have the freedom to worship as they saw fit.

They fasted and prayed, and on November 21, 1620, the pilgrims landed on the tip of Cape Cod. They then sailed onto Plymouth where, in late December, they established a permanent settlement. As Marshall and Manuel pointed out, they were ordinary Christian families about to establish an extraordinary Christian nation, called America (Scarborough, 2008). The Americans who are not Christians today, are building a new foundation and it is a very dangerous thing.

“For other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ. Now if any man build upon this foundation gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, stubble; Every man's work shall be made manifest: for the day shall declare it, because it shall be revealed by fire; and the fire shall try every man's work of what sort it is” (1 Corinthians 3:11-13).

The present Americans, who have left the good foundation of their ancestors will suffer, but their children who will refuse to repent will suffer more. (Exodus 20:5; Psalm 21:1).

If God will not spare the children of the ancestors with good foundation who backslide, what will be the condition of the children whom their ancestors worshipped idols?

“Well; because of unbelief they were broken off, and thou standest by faith. Be not highminded, but fear: For if God spared not the natural branches, take heed lest he also spare not thee” (Romans 11:20-21).

Africans and other nations of the world whose ancestors worshipped idols must be careful. They should not observe the traditions and the custom of their ancestors. They must not call the names of their father’s gods or worship those idols. The practice of evil traditions like consulting dead ancestors is an abomination to God.

“The graven images of their gods shall ye burn with fire: thou shalt not desire the silver or gold that is on them, nor take it unto thee, lest thou be snared therein: for it is an abomination to the LORD thy God” (Deuteronomy. 7:25).

God hates idolatry with perfect hatred. Even the so called blessings from worshipping idols should be rejected. Idolatry is foolishness, vain, bloody, unprofitable, abominable and defiling.

“Neither shalt thou set thee up any image; which the LORD thy God hateth” (Deuteronomy. 16:22).

The idols of our ancestors can deliver her worshippers from some levels of trouble but it is God who will deliver us from every trouble, big or small.

“But these speak evil of those things which they know not: but what they know naturally, as brute beasts, in those things they corrupt themselves. Woe unto them! for they have gone in the way of Cain, and ran greedily after the error of Balaam for reward, and perished in the gainsaying of Core. These are spots in your feasts of charity, when they feast with you, feeding themselves without fear: clouds they are without water, carried about of winds; trees whose fruit withereth, without fruit, twice dead, plucked up by the roots; Raging waves of the sea, foaming out their own shame; wandering stars, to whom is reserved the blackness of darkness forever. And Enoch also, the seventh from Adam, prophesied of these, saying, Behold, the Lord cometh with ten thousands of his saints” (Jude 10-14).

Idolatry is worshipping dead men, worshipping or sacrificing to images, or worshipping the true God with an image. It is consulting dead people or believing in them when they talk through familiar spirits in our dreams.

When you see a dead person in your dream, they are familiar spirits that are in that person’s family. No dead person can come out again even in the dream without the intervention of the person’s familiar spirit. Listening to such persons in the dream is as good as listening to the devil. You must fight such spirits that has the spirit of your ancestors or dead people in your dream.

They may appear with true information and solutions to your immediate problems, but the end is always destructive. Familiar spirits have used dead people, both good and bad, to appear to many people in many places; destroying lives and destinies. No dead person is allowed by God to return to the world.

Then he said, I pray thee therefore, father, that thou wouldest send him to my father's house: For I have five brethren; that he may testify unto them, lest they also come into this place of torment. Abraham saith unto him, They have Moses and the prophets; let them hear them. And he said, Nay, father Abraham: but if one went unto them from the dead, they will repent. And he said unto him, If they hear not Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded, though one rose from the dead” (Luke 16:27-31).

Believers don't wait for the spirit of their ancestors. If God wants to talk to a believer, He can do so directly or through his trusted ministers on earth, but it must not oppose the scriptures. Our ancestors have died and they are no longer permitted to come back or visit their living relatives. All the stories of our ancestors saying so and so in the dream or through witch doctors, are lies. The information is from the familiar spirits seeking for whom to waste. Stay with God and his word and you will be saved.

“All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness: That the man of God may be perfect, throughly furnished unto all good works” (2 Timothy 3:16-17).

Consequences Of Ancestral Sins

- Mourning will be greater in number than things that brings joy (Lamentation 5:15).
- The glory of the victims will disappear (Lamentation 5:16).

How Can We Be Delivered?

- Repent and confess the sins of your ancestors.
- Breakout from every ancestral sin and other sins.
- Live a holy life and be prayerful in life.
- Destroy every evil altars, idols, or charms in your possession.

The question is this; “where are our ancestors?” They are all dead, suffering in hell fire or enjoying in heaven and can no longer help us who are alive on earth

“Our fathers have sinned, and are not; and we have borne their iniquities” (Lamentations 5:7).

“Then there was a famine in the days of David three years, year after year; and David enquired of the LORD. And the LORD answered, It is for Saul, and for his bloody house, because he slew the Gibeonites” (2 Samuel 21:1).

CHAPTER FOUR

The Deliverance Of The Deliverer

The problem of many believers is their ignorance of their need for deliverance (Exodus 20:2-5; Matthew. 12:43-45). Everyone born in the family of Reuben needed deliverance from his evil foundation before they could excel. Reuben was Jacob's first born; his might; the beginning of his father's strength; the Excellency of his father's dignity; the excellence of his power. But he was cursed by Jacob, his father, because of immorality (Genesis 49:3-4).

Instead of Reuben falling down before his father to beg for forgiveness, he walked out, thinking that it was just a mere word. He had an opportunity to ask for deliverance but he was ignorant of his need for deliverance. At the time of the curse, he was excelling above many in his time. But later, his offspring began to have problems because no one from that lineage challenged the curse.

*“Let Reuben live, and not die; and let not his men be few”

Premature death almost wiped the whole lineage of Reuben out. They had many widows than men until Moses prayed for them. In time of captivity, the children of Reuben were always the first to be carried or victimized.

“And they transgressed against the God of their fathers, and went a whoring after the gods of the people of the land, whom God destroyed before them.

And the God of Israel stirred up the spirit of Pul king of Assyria, and the spirit of Tilgathpilneser king of Assyria, and he carried them away, even the Reubenites, and the Gadites, and the half tribe of Manasseh, and brought them unto Halah, and Habor, and Hara, and to the river Gozan, unto this day” (1 Chronicles. 5:25-26).

The tribe of Levi and Simon also had a very bad foundation but they ignored it. They were so cruel and their father, Jacob, discovered it on time. They were cursed for that reason but they never took it seriously.

“Simeon and Levi are brethren; instruments of cruelty are in their habitations.

O my soul, come not thou into their secret; unto their assembly, mine honour, be not thou united: for in their anger they slew a man, and in their selfwill they digged down a wall. Cursed be their anger, for it was fierce; and their wrath, for it was cruel: I will divide them in Jacob, and scatter them in Israel” (Genesis 49:5-7).

All the people born in that tribe never took it seriously. The tribe of Levites had a lot of problems and that was what the enemy used against Moses. Many people from the tribe of Simon died a violent death.

“Now the name of the Israelite that was slain, even that was slain with the Midianitish woman, was Zimri, the son of Salu, a prince of a chief house among the Simeonites” (Numbers. 25:14).

The apostles of Jesus Christ were soundly saved but they needed full deliverance. They were selfish and unconcerned for other people's needs.

“Then came to him the mother of Zebedee's children with her sons, worshipping him, and desiring a certain thing of him. And he said unto her, What wilt thou? She saith unto him, Grant that these my two sons may sit, the one on thy right hand, and the other on the left, in thy kingdom. But Jesus answered and said, Ye know not what ye ask. Are ye able to drink of the cup that I shall drink of, and to be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with? They say unto him, We are able. And he saith unto them, Ye shall drink indeed of my cup, and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with: but to sit on my right hand, and on my left, is not mine to give, but it shall be given to them for whom it is prepared of my Father. And when the ten heard it, they were moved with indignation against the two brethren” (Matthew 20:20-24).

“And, behold, a woman of Canaan came out of the same coasts, and cried unto him, saying, Have mercy on me, O Lord, thou Son of David; my daughter is grievously vexed with a devil. But he answered her not a word. And his disciples came and besought him, saying, Send her away; for she crieth after us” (Matthew.15:22-23).

Jonah was a great prophet who heard directly from God but he showed displeasure because God decided to spare the lives of the Ninevites. His love for people outside his tribe was very low.

“And Jonah began to enter into the city a day's journey, and he cried, and said, Yet forty days, and Nineveh shall be overthrown. So the people of Nineveh believed God, and proclaimed a fast, and put on sackcloth, from the greatest of them even to the least of them. For word came unto the king of Nineveh, and he arose from his throne, and he laid his robe from him, and covered him with sackcloth, and sat in ashes. And he caused it to be proclaimed and published through Nineveh by the decree of the king and his nobles, saying, Let neither man nor beast, herd nor flock, taste any thing: let them not feed, nor drink water: But let man and beast be covered with sackcloth, and cry mightily unto God: yea, let them turn every one from his evil way, and from the violence that is in their hands. Who can tell if God will turn and repent, and turn away from his fierce anger, that we perish not? And God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way; and God repented of the evil, that he had said that he would do unto them; and he did it not. But it displeased Jonah exceedingly, and he was very angry. And he prayed unto the LORD, and said, I pray thee, O LORD, was not this my saying, when I was yet in my country? Therefore I fled before unto Tarshish: for I knew that thou art a gracious God, and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repentest thee of the evil. Therefore now, O LORD, take, I beseech thee, my life from me; for it is better for me to die than to live. Then said the LORD, Doest thou well to be angry? So Jonah went out of the city, and sat on the east side of the city, and there made him a booth, and sat under it in the shadow, till he might see what would become of the city. And the LORD God prepared a gourd, and made it to come up over Jonah, that it might be a shadow over his head, to deliver him from his grief. So Jonah was exceeding glad of the gourd. But God prepared a worm when the morning rose the next day, and it smote the gourd that it withered. And it came to pass, when the sun did arise, that God prepared a vehement east wind; and the sun beat upon the head of Jonah, that he fainted, and wished in himself to die, and said, It is better for me to die than to live. And God said to Jonah, Doest thou well to be angry for the gourd? And he said, I do well to be angry, even unto death. Then said the LORD, Thou hast had pity on the gourd, for the which thou hast not laboured, neither madest it grow; which came up in a night, and perished in a night: And should not I spare Nineveh, that great city, wherein are more than sixscore thousand persons that cannot discern between their right hand and their left hand; and also much cattle” (Jonah 3:4-10; 4:1-11)?

Jonah was a preacher and a great prophet; but he never saw the need for personal deliverance. Ahab committed a murder and saw the need for deliverance. He prayed and repented but never saw the need to pray for the deliverance of his family members.

“And it came to pass, when Ahab heard that Naboth was dead, that Ahab rose up to go down to the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, to take possession of it. And the word of the LORD came to Elijah the Tishbite, saying, Arise, go down to meet Ahab king of Israel, which is in Samaria: behold, he is in the vineyard of Naboth, whither he is gone down to possess it. And thou shalt speak unto him, saying, Thus saith the LORD, Hast thou killed, and also taken possession? And thou shalt speak unto him, saying, Thus saith the LORD, In the place where dogs licked the blood of Naboth shall dogs lick thy blood, even thine. And Ahab said to Elijah, Hast thou found me, O mine enemy? And he answered, I have found thee: because thou hast sold thyself to work evil in the sight of the LORD. Behold, I will bring evil upon thee, and will take away thy posterity, and will cut off from Ahab him that pisseth against the wall, and him that is shut up and left in Israel, And will make thine house like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and like the house of Baasha the son of Ahijah, for the provocation wherewith thou hast provoked me to anger, and made Israel to sin. And of Jezebel also spake the LORD, saying, The dogs shall eat Jezebel by the wall of Jezreel. Him that dieth of Ahab in the city the dogs shall eat; and him that dieth in the field shall the fowls of the air eat. But there was none like unto Ahab, which did sell himself to work wickedness in the sight of the LORD, whom Jezebel his wife stirred up. And he did very abominably in following idols, according to all things as did the Amorites, whom the LORD cast out before the children of Israel. And it came to pass, when Ahab heard those words, that he rent his clothes, and put sackcloth upon his flesh, and fasted, and lay in sackcloth, and went softly. And the word of the LORD came to Elijah the Tishbite, saying, Seest thou how Ahab humbleth himself before me? because he humbleth himself before me, I will not bring the evil in his days: but in his son's days will I bring the evil upon his house” (1 King 21:16-29).

His sin brought all his family members into a collective captivity. His prayers only delivered him alone but his family was trapped in the family circle of sin (2 Kings 9:30-37; 10:1, 6-8, 10-11). Your ancestors may have committed great sins before they got born again (that is if they were ever born again). All of Ahab's children were trapped in the family curse of their father's sin ever before they were born (2 King 4:1).

Gehazi was trapped down together with his children of every generation.

“But he went in, and stood before his master. And Elisha said unto him, Whence comest thou, Gehazi? And he said, Thy servant went no whither. And he said unto him, Went not mine heart with thee, when the man turned again from his chariot to meet thee? Is it a time to receive money, and to receive garments, and oliveyards, and vineyards, and sheep, and oxen, and menservants, and maidservants? The leprosy therefore of Naaman shall cleave unto thee, and unto thy seed for ever. And he went out from his presence a leper as white as snow” (2 King 5:25-27).

Ananias and Sapphira vowed to remain in evil foundation and they both died, and their destinies were wasted right inside the church. Lazarus the beggar, overcame every sinful foundation but he was bewitched with wrong desires of poverty and sickness even though he was a believer.

“And there was a certain beggar named Lazarus, which was laid at his gate, full of sores, And desiring to be fed with the crumbs which fell from the rich man's table: moreover the dogs came and licked his sores. And it came to pass, that the beggar died, and was carried by the angels into Abraham's bosom: the rich man also died, and was buried” (Luke 16:20-22).

The rich man was deceived by false prosperity with a sinful foundation, and he paid with his soul. Jabez came from a terrible poverty-destructive foundation but he arose and fought it out.

“And Jabez was more honourable than his brethren: and his mother called his name Jabez, saying, Because I bare him with sorrow. And Jabez called on the God of Israel, saying, Oh that thou wouldest bless me indeed, and enlarge my coast, and that thine hand might be with me, and that thou wouldest keep me from evil, that it may not grieve me! And God granted him that which he requested” (1 Chronicles. 4:9-10).

The question is this; “CAN ANY GOOD THING COME OUT OF NAZARETH?” (JOHN 1:46). YES! JESUS IS THE ANSWER.

DAY 3

DELIVERANCE FROM HIDDEN CURSES

[2 Samuel 21:1-9; Lamentation. 5:1-7; Proverbs. 26:2; 2 Kings 2:19].

What is a curse?

- It is the direct opposite of blessings.

- It is a spell cast upon a person.
- It is an evil word put together to torment a person.
- It is an invisible barrier that keeps a person away from the plans and promises of God.

Everything a cursed person does is done with much struggle. Frustration comes into his program at the edge of success. Curses limit victims to certain levels of life.

Types Of Curses

When someone is under a hidden curse, strange things will characterize his life. All his efforts to succeed in life will meet strange battles that are not common or in practice with others. The devil resists all the prayers of cursed people vehemently. They are usually attacked with terrifying dreams and strange fears. Some of them are easily manipulated into costly mistakes. They are full of confusion, trials and temptations. They suffer periodical problems, loss of huge amounts of money and jobs; but they can be delivered if they pray very well.

“And afterward when David heard it, he said, I and my kingdom are guiltless before the LORD for ever from the blood of Abner the son of Ner: Let it rest on the head of Joab, and on all his father's house; and let there not fail from the house of Joab one that hath an issue, or that is a leper, or that leaneth on a staff, or that falleth on the sword, or that lacketh bread” (2 Samuel 3:28-

DAY 4

DELIVERANCE FROM EVIL ALTARS

[Jude 6:25-26; 1 Corinthians. 3:11, 13; Numbers. 16:15, 35, 49; 23:1-2, 13-14, 27-30, 21-23, 17; 25:1-3, 6-9].

Every believer should have knowledge of what is going on in satanic altars. It is a place where the enemy gives food and drinks to the unclean spirit to seek for their assistance to destroy human beings. A lot of great destinies have been discovered and destroyed on evil altars. Lives of millions of Christians and non-Christians alike, are being afflicted on evil altars all over the world.

Many are being influenced to take wrong decisions on evil altars. Many progressing destinies are being wasted on evil altars. Promising stars and greatness have been wasted on evil altars all over the world. Many have been marked for evil on evil altars. Mysterious sicknesses and problems have been introduced by the wicked ones, who use evil altars. Unless many Christians challenge the enemy on evil altars, many aspects of their lives will be imprisoned on evil altars. Many are useless today because of the activities of occult altars. Believers are called to challenge the activities of the wicked on evil altars.

“And it came to pass the same night, that the LORD said unto him, Take thy father's young bullock, even the second bullock of seven years old, and throw down the altar of Baal that thy father hath, and cut down the grove that is by it: And build an altar unto the LORD thy God upon the top of this rock, in the ordered place, and take the second bullock, and offer a burnt sacrifice with the wood of the grove which thou shalt cut down. Then Gideon took ten men of his servants, and did as the LORD had said unto him: and so it was, because he feared his father's household, and the men of the city, that he could not do it by day, that he did it by night” (Judges 6:25-27).

What Is An Evil Altar?

- It is a meeting place for evil men with unclean spirits to waste God's creation.
- It is a place where people's destinies are examined or deposited for evil attacks.
- It is a place where evil actions are tested before they are introduced into the world.
- It is a place of the demonstration of unclean powers.
- It is a place where arrested destinies are stored and used for evil purposes.
- It is a place where evil information gathered by the devil is stored.
- It is a place where original lives of human beings are arrested and detained for evil.
- It is a place where the will of God is exchanged for the will of the devil and his agents.
- It is a place where sacrifices are offered to cry against human souls.
- It is a satanic dining table; an evil restaurant where demons and his agents celebrate and eat.
- It is a place where people go to contact evil powers for evil actions.
- It is a place where manipulations, bewitchment and divination prosper.
- It is a place where all manner of problems are introduced, tested and proved for action against mankind.
- It is a place where a major evil covenant emanates from first.
- It is a place where human progresses are padlocked.
- It is a place where evil discussions and evil agreements are reached.

- It is a starting point of every evil decisions, covenants and actions.

An altar can be found in a crossroad, tree, river, heavenlies, and inside a moving animal. It can also be located in a photograph, clothes, stick, stone, or in a house. It can be stationed in a place or be moved about. Every altar has a priest or priestess that attends to them.

The worshippers can bow down to them, sacrifice to them, worship them, swear to them, speak to them, look up to them, call them by names, serve them, and fear them. But as a believer, you are commanded to destroy them (Jud 6:25-27).

Believers should throw down evil altars, cut down their groves, and build another altar unto their God. Evil altars can be challenged and burnt by fire.

“And Elijah came unto all the people, and said, How long halt ye between two opinions? if the LORD be God, follow him: but if Baal, then follow him. And the people answered him not a word...And it came to pass at the time of the offering of the evening sacrifice, that Elijah the prophet came near, and said, LORD God of Abraham, Isaac, and of Israel, let it be known this day that thou art God in Israel, and that I am thy servant, and that I have done all these things at thy word. Hear me, O LORD, hear me, that this people may know that thou art the LORD God, and that thou hast turned their heart back again. Then the fire of the LORD fell, and consumed the burnt sacrifice, and the wood, and the stones, and the dust, and licked up the water that was in the trench. And when all the people saw it, they fell on their faces: and they said, The LORD, he is the God; the LORD, he is the God. And Elijah said unto them, Take the prophets of Baal; let not one of them escape. And they took them: and Elijah brought them down to the brook Kishon, and slew them there” (1 King 18:21, 36-40).

When you are dreaming always about a particular place, there must be an altar there that has affected your life negatively. When you see masquerades or snakes pursuing you in your dream, they are coming from an evil altar. When you dream always seeing yourself in a school you left back or still dressing in your old school uniform, watch out; the altar in that school is still hunting for your life. When you dream of writing an exam you wrote years back, you are under the attack of an evil altar. They are dealing with your academic life. The altar in that school has tampered with your academic life even though you may be out of school now. Your certificate may have been affected and possessed by evil altar demons. If you have an unprofitable certificate, deal with school altars.

If in your dreams you still visit your village often, your village altars captured part of your destiny even though you may be living outside your country now. If you still wear your old school uniform in your dreams, school altars are still in charge. If you still dream of the places you visited or lived before often, you need to deal with the altars there. If you are having blockages at the edge of miracles, you are under the attacks of evil altars. If your marriage is not giving you rest, joy and peace; evil altars of both your place of birth and that of your partner are after your marriage. If you are not succeeding in a particular place, there is an altar attacking you called environmental altars.

“The word of the LORD came also unto me, saying, Thou shalt not take thee a wife, neither shalt thou have sons or daughters in this place. For thus saith the LORD concerning the sons and concerning the daughters that are born in this place, and concerning their mothers that bare them, and concerning their fathers that begat them in this land; They shall die of grievous deaths; they shall not be lamented; neither shall they be buried; but they shall be as dung upon the face of the earth: and they shall be consumed by the sword, and by famine; and their carcases shall be meat for the fowls of heaven, and for the beasts of the earth. For thus saith the LORD, Enter not into the house of mourning, neither go to lament nor bemoan them: for I have taken away my peace from this people, saith the LORD, even lovingkindness and mercies. Both the great and the small shall die in this land: they shall not be buried, neither shall men lament for them, nor cut themselves, nor make themselves bald for them” (Jeremiah. 16:1-6).

If you are having problems where you are living now, there is a resident altar attacking your life. Fight it now and build a new altar there. If your project in a particular place is being delayed, the place may have an altar. If strange things are taking place where you now live and you are always having problems and losing good things, you need to fight the environmental altars.

Evil altars in a place bring assorted kinds of backwardness, and increase enemies to frustrate your efforts. When they receive evil sacrifices or seasonal feasts in your environment, they attack uncompromising victims. If the sacrifices are periodically, they attack people with periodical problems, failures, and seasonal problems. They bring repeated problems, mistakes, and business failures. Evil altars disgrace their victims, manipulate people, and cause them to be fed up with life (Genesis 26:15-22). You must fight evil altars until you get perfect victory.

Aggressive Prayers

DAY 5

DELIVERANCE FROM MARINE SPIRITS

[Jeremiah. 7:15-18; Revelations 17:1-6, 15].

Marine kingdom is a reality and it is a well-organized department in satanic kingdom. Her system is well structured to exercise dominion over human lives. They control many aspects of human life like educational sector, economy, music, industry, clubs and sports. Many nations and groups are in covenant with this kingdom without knowledge. Marine kingdom attacks uncompromising victims.

“Then all the men which knew that their wives had burned incense unto other gods, and all the women that stood by, a great multitude, even all the people that dwelt in the land of Egypt, in Pathros, answered Jeremiah, saying, As for the word that thou hast spoken unto us in the name of the LORD, we will not hearken unto thee. But we will certainly do whatsoever thing goeth forth out of our own mouth, to burn incense unto the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings unto her, as we have done, we, and our fathers, our kings, and our princes, in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem: for then had we plenty of victuals, and were well, and saw no evil. But since we left off to burn incense to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings unto her, we have wanted all things, and have been consumed by the sword and by the famine” (Jeremiah. 44:15-18).

Marine kingdom is in charge of satanic administrative department. They are in charge of coastal powers through the queen of the coast. The Queen of the coast is in charge of boundaries, traditions, customs and communal compulsory sacrifices and worships. She puts people into collective captivities through evil covenant and group sacrifices. The queen of the coast controls local streams, rivers, and territories.

- They get irritated and became angry without reasons at times.

- Some of them have a treat of pride and pomposity unconsciously.

- They are attacked with painful menstruation, non-menstruation or prolonged menstruation.
- Some face in-explainable barrenness, in-explainable miscarriage; loss of many months' pregnancies, prolonged pregnancies, or consistent child delivery through caesarean.

Marine spirit attacks are increasing every day in our generation. They have released a lot of unclean sexual demons on earth to destroy mankind. They cause many good Christians with their background to meet those who will not add good things into their lives. They multiply people into the lives of uncompromising members who will take and will not give. Many good Christians are presently battling with unknown problems from her.
